II. The following appointments on the Staff of the Commander-in-Chief are hereby announced:

Adjutant-General,

Ephraim B. Stillings, Boston, Mass.

Quartermaster-General,

Cola D. R. Stowits, Buffalo, N. Y.

Judge-Advocate-General,

Thomas S. Hopkins, Washington, D.C.

Inspector-General,

Henry Z. Osborne, Los Angeles, Cal.

National Patriotic Instructor,

J. S. Hoagland, North Platte, Neb.

Senior Aide-de-Camp and Chief of Staff,

William M. Olin, Boston, Mass.

Assistant Adjutant-General,

Wilfred A. Wetherbee, Boston, Mass.

Assistant Quartermaster-General and Custodian of Records,

J. Henry Holcomb, Independence Hall, Philadelphia, Pa.

Headquarters Bugler,

J. Payson Bradley, Boston, Mass.

They will be obeyed and respected accordingly.

Other appointments will be announced in subsequent General Orders.

III. At a meeting of the National Council of Administration held at Hotel Chalfonte, Atlantic City, N.J., September 23, 1910, it was voted that the Executive Committee consist of the Commander-in-Chief, Senior Vice-Commander-in-Chief, Adjutant-General, Quartermaster-General and seven members of the National Council of Administration to be appointed by the Commander-in-Chief.

In accordance with this vote the following members of the National Council of Administration are hereby appointed on the Executive Committee:

William H. Armstrong, Indianapolis, Ind.

F. M. Sterrett, St. Louis, Mo.

James Owens, New York, N.Y.

Charles B. Wilson, Chicago, Ill.

H. M. Pickell, Des Moines, Ia.

William J. Patterson, Pittsburg, Pa.

Loren W. Collins, Minneapolis, Minn.

IV. Past Adjutant-General Eddy recommended in his report that hereafter all requisitions for supplies be sent direct to the Quartermaster-General, thus saving many vexatious delays. The report and recommendation was adopted by the Forty-fourth National Encampment. In compliance with this vote, Assistant Adjutants-General must hereafter forward all requisitions for supplies direct to Cola D. R. Stowits, Quartermaster-General, 877 Ellicott Square, Buffalo, N.Y.

All drafts, checks and money orders for supplies, per capita tax and other remittances, not otherwise specified, must be made payable to the order of the Quartermaster-General, who will submit a monthly report to these Headquarters showing all receipts and disbursements. All current accounts will be paid by voucher, duly signed by the Adjutant-General and approved by the Commander-in-Chief.

V. The Commander-in-Chief feels it necessary to call the attention of comrades to the improper use of military titles in the Grand Army of the Republic, which is prohibited by vote of the Forty-third National Encampment, held at Salt Lake City.

In order to establish uniformity in addressing correspondence, it is recommended that hereafter the following form be used:

COMRADE JOHN E. GILMAN,
COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF, G.A.R.

and

COMRADE E. B. STILLINGS,
ADJUTANT-GENERAL, G.A.R.

It so happens that the Commander-in-Chief, his Adjutant-General and Chief of Staff enlisted as privates and were discharged as such, therefore the title of "General" is entirely out of place. There is no more endearing name than "Comrade" among ourselves, whether addressed to the Commander-in-Chief or the humblest comrade in our ranks. As comrades, bound by the strongest fraternal ties, regardless of previous rank, we must keep the old and thrilling "touch of elbow," until our final muster out.

VI. The Commander-in-Chief received a telegram of congratulation from President Taft and publishes the same herewith, together with copy of his reply, believing that they will be of great interest to all his comrades.

CINCINNATI, OHIO, Sept. 23, 1910.

JOHN E. GILMAN,
Commander-in-Chief, Grand Army of the Republic,
Boston, Mass.

I congratulate you upon becoming the head of the Grand Army of the Republic. Your predecessor and his energetic administration I have known well, and I wish for your administration a continuance of that success.

I greatly regret that a peremptory engagement at my home prevented my presence at the National Encampment, to which Past Commander-in-Chief Van Sant was good enough to extend me an invitation.

WILLIAM H. TAFT.

The Commander-in-Chief replied as follows:

BOSTON, MASS., September 27, 1910.

TO THE PRESIDENT, HON. WILLIAM H. TAFT,
Washington, D.C.

My home-coming was gladdened by your gracious message. The saviors of the Union, through their official representative, thank you for your interest in them and send loving greetings to the loyal President of the Union they saved.

We hope to be honored by your presence at our next National Encampment.

JOHN E. GILMAN,
Commander-in-Chief, G.A.R.

VII. The Court asked for by Past Senior Vice-Commander-in-Chief McElroy and ordered by the National Encampment to investigate rumored allegations and charges reflecting on him as a comrade has been appointed by Past Commander-in-Chief Van Sant and is comprised of the following named comrades:

Charles G. Burton, Chairman, Past Commander-in-Chief.
Ell Torrance, Past Commander-in-Chief.
Henry M. Nevius, Past Commander-in-Chief.
Elisha H. Rhodes, Past Senior Vice-Commander-in-Chief.
J. Kent Hamilton, Past Senior Vice-Commander-in-Chief.

AIDES-DE-CAMP ON STAFF OF COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.

VIII. Department Commanders are hereby requested to forward promptly to these Headquarters recommendations for appointment of Aides-de-Camp on the Staff of the Commander-in-Chief.

It is absolutely necessary that the full name, Post No. and post-office address be clearly given, in order that circulars and commissions may be forwarded to them.

Following the precedent of the last four administrations, every Aide-de-Camp so appointed will be required to pay one dollar for his badge and commission, which covers cost of badge, commission and engrossing same, and the necessary printing and postage.

If a comrade has a badge, and desires the commission only, fifty cents will defray the cost of same, and the necessary engrossing and postage. If neither commission or badge is wanted, or the commission only, he will so notify the Adjutant-General without delay. In any case his appointment will be duly announced in General Orders.

Each comrade recommended for appointment will receive Circular Letter from the Adjutant-General giving him full information.

ASSISTANT INSPECTORS-GENERAL.

IX. Assistant Inspectors-General will be appointed by the Commander-in-Chief, on the nomination of the Inspector-General. They will promptly report by letter for duty to the Inspector-General, who will advise the Adjutant-General and thereafter proper commissions will be forwarded.

The Inspector-General will advise his assistants regarding their duties.

X. Assistant Adjutants-General are requested to promptly forward their reports for December to the Adjutant-General, and to take special pains in making them accurate and complete.

They are also requested to forward without delay to these Headquarters notice of the death of any Past Department Commander and permanent representative of the National Encampment in their Departments, with brief sketch of his military and Grand Army service, in order that the same may be published in General Orders.

They are hereby directed, if they have not already done so, to forward promptly to Comrade George O. Eddy, Past Adjutant-General, 1611 Second Avenue, South, Minneapolis, Minn., the names of all members of the Forty-fourth National Encampment who died prior to the last National Encampment, together with their military and Grand Army records, for the Journal which will soon be published.

AMENDMENTS TO RULES AND REGULATIONS.

XI. The following amendments to the Rules and Regulations were adopted by the Forty-fourth National Encampment at Atlantic City, September 23, 1910, and are now in force:

CHAPTER I, ARTICLE IV, page 4, after the words "Marine Corps" in second line, insert the words, "and Revenue Cutter Service."

CHAPTER V, ARTICLE IV, SECTION 4, page 31, after the word "effect," in the eighth line insert the words, "which shall be referred to a Committee of three, who shall examine and report as in the application of a new member."

XII. The Forty-fourth National Encampment adopted the report of the Committee on Rules, Regulations and Ritual, which recommended that the following, though not properly a subject for an amendment to the Rules and Regulations, be printed as a paragraph in General Orders:

"Posts may at their option encourage the formation of a 'Citizens' Corps connected with ——— Post,' to be composed of persons not eligible to membership in the Grand Army of the Republic, provided the members thereof shall not be admitted to Post meetings, or wear any insignia, button or badge which pertains to the Grand Army of the Republic, and under such Rules as the Post may prescribe."

XIII. The stock of Rules and Regulations being nearly exhausted, a new edition, revised to date, will be ready about December 1, 1910, and may be ordered direct from the Quartermaster-General.

It is earnestly recommended that each Post provide itself with at least one copy of the latest edition of our laws.

XIV. General Orders No. 3 will be promulgated as soon as all recommendations for appointments for Aides-de-Camp are received from Departments, therefore lists should be forwarded Headquarters without delay. In these General Orders will be announced the several committees not already named, together with decisions of National Encampment not already promulgated, which may be of especial interest to every comrade.

XV. The Commander-in-Chief is pleased to acknowledge the courtesy of Mrs. Belle C. Harris, National President of our faithful auxiliary, the Woman's Relief Corps, in publishing in her General Orders, No. 1, the elected and appointed officers of the Grand Army of the Republic, and to express his appreciation of her pledge to coöperate with this administration in every way possible.

To the Ladies of the Grand Army, the Sons and Daughters of Veterans, and other allied organizations, he tenders sincere thanks for letters of congratulation and assurances of cordial support.

XVI. To be elected Commander-in-Chief is indeed a great honor. To be congratulated by comrades and friends augments that honor, but to receive hundreds of letters couched in the most fraternal, tender, loving terms, is a blessing than which there can be no greater in this world. The heart of the Commander-in-Chief is overflowing with the deepest gratitude to all who have sent him such tender messages of loyalty and encouragement in the great work and responsibilities he has assumed. With your help, comrades, his efforts will be successful, without it they must be barren. Let us unite as one in all that will continue to make the Grand Army of the Republic the most honored and respected organization in the Nation we saved.

HEADQUARTERS GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
STATE HOUSE, BOSTON, MASS., December 30, 1910.

General Orders, }
No. 5. }

I. February is drawing near, that memorable month in which occur the anniversaries of the birth of Washington and Lincoln. Those honored names are dearer and mean more to the Grand Army of the Republic than to any other organization in the world. Let us show the great public how we revere their memories, by celebrating in some fitting manner their anniversaries on the 12th and 22d of February, not forgetting to offer up our fervent thanksgiving to God for sending them as a gift from Heaven to be the father and the martyr of our blessed country.

II. Over 550,000 Civil War veterans are still on the pension roll. Less than half of them are members of the Grand Army of the Republic. The increased pensions received by them are clearly due to our great Order. Why do they not recognize the debt they owe the Grand Army and show their appreciation by joining it? Is it because of ingratitude? Let us hope not. Rather ascribe it to thoughtlessness or some less ignoble reason. It is not yet too late.

A most remarkable case has just occurred. On December 20, Merriam Post No. 8 of Meriden, Conn., mustered into its ranks Comrade William H. Davidson, who, a month before, celebrated the one hundredth anniversary of his birth. His name appears in these General Orders as an Aide-de-Camp and your Commander-in-Chief is proud to have such a man on his staff. In explanation of his long delayed application for membership, it should be said that most of his time since the war has been spent as a missionary in heathen countries. What a splendid example for others to emulate!

But the others will not hear these General Orders read. Then let our faithful comrades, who are privileged to hear them, go forth as missionaries and convert the unbelieving veterans to the principles of Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty. Inability to pay initiation fee and dues can be no excuse, for our ever faithful auxiliary, the Woman's Relief Corps, has announced its intention to pay, through their local Corps, such fees and dues for all who cannot pay for themselves. With sincere gratitude to those blessed women, let us accept their generous and patriotic offer, and gather into our ranks those worthy veterans who have been obliged through necessity to remain outside.

It is interesting to note, that in the list of Aides-de-Camp extremes meet. Comrade Fred A. Church, Post 9, Houston, Texas, is believed to be the youngest soldier now living who served in the Union Army. He enlisted in April, 1863, at the age of seven years and is young enough to be the grandson of Comrade Davidson and yet both are comrades in the Grand Army of the Republic.

III. The following additional Resolutions of the Forty-fourth National Encampment are hereby promulgated:

INCORPORATION OF THE GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC.

That application be made for the incorporation of this body by the Congress of the United States, at the earliest practicable opportunity; that such corporation be named the "Grand Army of the Republic;" that the officers of this body be empowered to execute all applications and papers necessary therefor; that a committee of three be appointed by the Commander-in-Chief to take such steps as may be necessary to bring about such incorporation.

The following committee is hereby appointed:

William Warner, Past Commander-in-Chief.

Robert B. Beath, Past Commander-in-Chief.

James Tanner, Past Commander-in-Chief.

They are requested to use every effort to procure the passage of an Act incorporating the Grand Army of the Republic during the present session of Congress.

TRUSTEES OF PERMANENT FUND.

Comrade Louis Wagner was duly elected to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Comrade J. P. S. Gobin, one of the Trustees of the Permanent Fund, which is now constituted as follows:

Robert B. Brown, Zanesville, Ohio

Allan C. Bakewell, New York, N.Y.

Louis Wagner, Philadelphia, Pa.

VOTES OF THANKS.

The deep appreciation and sincere thanks of the Encampment were unanimously tendered to the Woman's Relief Corps for their munificent gift of $1,000, for our Permanent Fund, also to the National Alliance of Daughters of Veterans, for their generous donation of $250 for the same fund.

IV. The Chairman of the Court of Inquiry created by the Forty-fourth National Encampment to investigate alleged charges reflecting on John McElroy as a comrade, announces that the Court will meet in Grand Army Hall, 1412 Pennsylvania Avenue, Northwest, Washington, D.C., on Tuesday, January 24, 1911, at 10.30 A.M., at which meeting all persons desiring to submit evidence in the case will be heard.

The Court will conduct the inquiry in accordance with the Articles of War, and the usages prevailing in cases of a similar character arising in the Army and Navy of the United States, and the method of procedure will be determined by the Court in conformity thereto.

The Court is authorized to appoint an official Recorder, and such other officers as may be necessary.

The Court, as appointed by Past Commander-in-Chief Van Sant, is constituted as follows:

Chairman, Charles G. Burton, Past Commander-in-Chief, Room 216 Government Building, Kansas City, Missouri.

Ell Torrance, Past Commander-in-Chief, Minneapolis, Minn.

Henry M. Nevius, Past Commander-in-Chief, Red Bank, N.J.

Elisha H. Rhodes, Past Senior Vice-Commander-in-Chief, Providence, R.I.

J. Kent Hamilton, Past Senior Vice-Commander-in-Chief, Toledo, Ohio.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

V. The great heart of the Grand Army of the Republic goes out in profound gratitude to Mrs. Helen R. Blackmar for her munificent donation of $1,000 to our Permanent Fund, in memory of her deceased husband, our honored and beloved Commander-in-Chief, Wilmon W. Blackmar, who died in office in 1905 while on official duty in a distant Department. As this is not her first gift, she may well be called "The Comrades' Friend."

VI. All comrades should know that in addition to the $1,000 given our Permanent Fund at Atlantic City, the Woman's Relief Corps voted to create the following special funds, viz.:

1. $3,000 for the Grand Army of the Republic, subject to any call of the Commander-in-Chief for aid of needy veterans.
2. $2,000 for the aid of army nurses who do not receive pensions, and by reason of advanced age cannot provide for themselves the comforts they need, to be paid out after due investigation, under instructions of the National President.
3. $1,000 for a memorial tablet to be erected at Andersonville Park, on which shall be inscribed the source from which the government received its sacred trust of that hallowed ground.

This action of the Twenty-eighth National Convention of the Woman's Relief Corps is truly a most remarkable display of loyalty and generosity from our own faithful Auxiliary which we prize at its true value, and for which the Grand Army of the Republic is deeply grateful.

VII. An error appears in Paragraph XIII, General Orders No. 2, stating that Rules and Regulations might be ordered of the Quartermaster-General direct.

It should read: "they must be ordered like other supplies through Department Headquarters."

VIII. By request of Col. T. T. Knox, Governor of the Southern Branch National Soldiers' Home, Virginia, who has formulated serious charges against Gideon L. Tooker, late Co. G, 10th New York Infantry, all comrades are cautioned against harboring or trusting him.

IX. The following-named comrades are hereby appointed Assistant Inspectors-General. They will report by letter to the Inspector-General Comrade Henry Z. Osborne, 313 Fourth Street, Los Angeles, Cal., for instructions. Commissions will not be issued until the comrades have reported for duty. In cases where comrades fail to report within thirty days from date of this order, appointments will be revoked and other appointments made.

Vol. Infantry in May, 1861, gave up his studies in Amherst College, said good-bye to the young wife to whom he had just been married, and went to the front to serve the Republic, a notable example of that devotion to duty and to service that characterized him through a long and useful life.

In December, 1861, he was assigned to the Signal Corps, in which he served four years, gaining the rank of Lieutenant. The last six months of that service he was chief signal officer on the staff of Gen. P. E. Connor in a campaign against the Indians in Montana and Wyoming.

Black, and as Assistant Adjutant-General of the Department of Illinois for fourteen years, with such ability and kindly consideration of all his comrades that he won their sincere affection. He will be greatly missed at National Encampments and especially by the comrades of his own Department, to whom the heartfelt sympathy of all our comrades is tendered.

He served all through the peninsular campaign under General McClellan, and was then transferred to and commissioned 1st Lieutenant of the 12th N.Y. Light Battery. While serving in this battery he was detailed as Inspector of Artillery of the Second Army Corps under General Hancock, a very high and responsible position for an officer not yet twenty-one years old.

In 1864 he was commissioned Lieutenant-Colonel of a New York Artillery Regiment, but his other duties prevented his assuming that rank. He was mustered out of the service in 1865.

In civil life he won high official position and the confidence of his fellow citizens as a most efficient and incorruptible officer.

As an earnest and zealous comrade of the Grand Army and as a well-beloved citizen he will be missed by all who had the privilege of his acquaintance.

XI. The patriotic citizens of Rochester, the "Flower City," have determined to make the Forty-fifth National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic one of the most delightful in the history of our Order. With abundant resources and generous hearts they have organized and created Committees providing for the comfort and enjoyment of all their guests.

The decorations and electrical display promise to excel that attempted by any other city. One new feature will be the explosion of bombs, during the great parade, from which large and beautiful flags emerge as a benediction to the "boys in blue."

As previously announced, accommodations will be ample and at any price, including free quarters. All that is necessary is to make known your wishes to Comrade Henry S. Redman, 143 Powers Building, Rochester, N.Y.

The leading physicians of Rochester have volunteered their services, and on the day of the parade, automobiles will be furnished so that "first aid" may be rendered quickly when needed.

The Encampment badges are to be worn only by members of the National Encampment. Department Commanders are directed to see that this order is strictly adhered to by their comrades.

XXV. Not the least pleasure our comrades enjoy at National Encampments, is the meeting of old comrades, perhaps for the first time since they were mustered out of the service.

Several prominent comrades have suggested that all our comrades wear upon the right breast of their coat their Corps badges, and if possible their brigade badges, when attending Department and National Encampments, which need not be expensive or conspicuous. Believing such a custom will bring many old comrades together, it is recommended that such badges be worn at the Forty-fifth National Encampment except when on parade.

XXVI. Because of promotions or resignations, new appointments for Assistant Inspectors-General have been made as follows:

HEADQUARTERS GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
STATE HOUSE, BOSTON, MASS., July 20, 1911.

General Orders, }
No. 10. }

I. Headquarters of the Grand Army of the Republic will be temporarily established at Hotel Seneca, Rochester, N.Y., from August 19 to August 26, inclusive.

II. The business sessions of the Forty-fifth National Encampment will be held in Convention Hall, Rochester, N.Y., beginning at 10.00 A.M., Thursday, August 24.

III. The following named comrades are hereby appointed for duty at Convention Hall, during the sessions of National Encampment:

OFFICER OF THE DAY

Adolphus S. Barber, Post 4, Rochester, N.Y.

OFFICER OF THE GUARD

John Cawthra, Post 397, Rochester, N.Y.

The Officer of the Day will detail as many comrades as are necessary for guard duty and report to the Adjutant-General for instructions.

IV. The Credential Committee will report to the Adjutant-General at National Headquarters, Hotel Seneca, Tuesday, August 22, at 3 P.M., instead of Monday as previously announced.

V. A special Circular Letter to Department Commanders and Assistant Adjutants-General will soon be issued, giving instructions and information, not promulgated in General Orders, regarding National Encampment.

VI. Aides-de-Camp will each receive Circular Letter from Comrade J. Payson Bradley, Senior Aide-de-Camp and Chief of Staff, giving them all necessary information and instructions.

VII. The citizens of Rochester have very thoughtfully and generously planned to give free automobile rides to the Comrades and their friends on Tuesday afternoon, August 22, thus giving their guests an opportunity to visit the beautiful parks and other attractions of the Flower City.

VIII. Quite a number of the beautiful brochures published by the Lincoln Centennial Committee, containing loving tributes to our martyred President, remain unsold. This book has been copyrighted by the Grand Army of the Republic, and the net proceeds will be turned over to our Permanent Fund. Every comrade should have a copy, and to make it possible for them to secure it, Assistant Quartermaster-General J. Henry Holcomb will have them on sale at the National Encampment. Every delegate is requested to purchase a copy, as they can procure no more desirable souvenir of the Forty-Fifth National Encampment.

IX. The following comrades are hereby appointed as the Committee on Rules and Regulations and Ritual:

A. G. WEISSERT, Wisconsin, Chairman,
 ALFRED B. BEERS, Connecticut,
 JOHN L. PARKER, Massachusetts,
 FRANK O. COLE, New Jersey,
 E. O. MONFORT, Ohio,
 A. J. GAHAGAN, Tennessee,
 OSCAR L. MOORE, Kansas.

The Committee will meet at National Headquarters, Hotel Seneca, Tuesday, August 22, at two o'clock P.M., to consider any arguments presented personally, or in writing, for or against the proposed amendments.

The absence of the name of Comrade R. B. Beath from the head of this most important Committee will occasion sorrow and disappointment to the Grand Army at large as it does to the Commander-in-Chief. In a spirit of fraternity and self-sacrifice he has for many years deprived himself of the pleasures of National Encampments by devoting his time and talents to the work of this Committee. As a convincing proof of his loyalty to our Order, he has just completed a revised edition of the Blue Book, and the Rules and Regulations. While it was the desire of the Commander-in-Chief that Comrade Beath should again accept the position he has so ably and creditably filled, he has yielded reluctantly to Comrade Beath's earnest request that he be relieved from further service on this Committee. In his retirement from these official duties he carries with him the affection and gratitude of all his Comrades.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO RULES AND REGULATIONS.

X. In accordance with Article XVI, Chapter V, Rules and Regulations, the following proposed amendments to Rules and Regulations have been regularly adopted by the following Department Encampments:

BY THE DEPARTMENT OF ILLINOIS.

That Rules and Regulations be so amended that all comrades who have held elective offices in National Encampment shall be members of their respective Department Encampments.

BY THE DEPARTMENT OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Resolution offered by Past Department Commander Robert B. Beath, to amend Section 4, Article VIII, Chapter IV, Rules and Regulations relative to Bonds of the Trustees of the Permanent Fund, so that the Trustees shall be relieved of giving a bond, and the bond, instead, shall be given by the bank or trust company selected by the Trustees, with the approval of the Commander-in-Chief, as the depository of the Permanent Fund.

BY THE DEPARTMENT OF OHIO.

WHEREAS, for some time it has been the custom of Old Guard Post No. 23, Dayton, Ohio, on the occasion of the death of a member, to place upon his breast a miniature silk flag of the United States, as a token of remembrance relating to the great war in which he bore a part.

This impressive ceremony affords a proper preliminary to the funeral services as conducted under the Ritual of the Grand Army of the Republic. It would, therefore, seem that the acceptance and general adoption of this ceremony by the Grand Army of the Republic, should be favorably considered; therefore, be it

Resolved, That Old Guard Post No. 23, Department of Ohio, Grand Army of the Republic, recommend for adoption by the Forty-fifth National Encampment the following form of ceremonial to be used as preliminary to burials of comrades of the Grand Army—the placing of a United States flag, of proper size, on the breast of a deceased comrade when convenient to do so, and that the following words, or words of similar import be used:

“This flag service is rendered in behalf of our great Republic, for whose integrity and unity our late Comrade —— offered his services during the great Civil War, and in behalf of —— Post No. — of which our beloved comrade was ‘a highly honored and devoted member.’ It is given to exemplify our love and respect for the Union ex-soldiers and sailors of the Civil War. Our beautiful flag, the one he loved so dearly, and in the defence of which he offered his life as a sacrifice that it might not come down, but continue to wave over a free and independent people, and be honored and respected in all the countries throughout the world. Those who devised and adopted it for us have passed away, and those who heroically and devotedly defended and saved it for us are now rapidly passing away.

“Reverently, we place this flag on the breast of our departed Comrade ——, for it was he and his compatriots who saved it without the loss of a single star.

“Its colors are beautiful and significant, its white stripes denote the purity of their devotion, the red stripes speak of the blood shed by his comrades who fell at his side, and the beautiful stars, representing our States that decorate the faithful field of blue, proclaim to all principalities what they won. And all this which is ours by their service, sacrifices, and devotion, is preserved and bequeathed to the American people, that it may continue to silently float, and tenderly speak the love and devotion of those who can no longer speak for themselves. But our race is nearly run, soon we shall be ordered to join the ranks of our brave departed spirits, with whom we bivouacked in the lonely paths of the mountains, and on the storm-swept plains of the valleys, but while we wait the summons to be retired to that peaceful haven where there shall be no more parting, let us hope and pray that future generations may emulate the unselfish devotion and heroism of all such noble, true and faithful heroes.”

BY THE DEPARTMENT OF NEW YORK.

WHEREAS, The Rules and Regulations of the Grand Army of the Republic provide and require twelve officers for each Post; and

WHEREAS, A large number of Posts in the Grand Army of the Republic have not a membership equaling the number of officers in a Post; and upon his breast a miniature silk flag of the United States, as a token of remembrance relating to the great war in which he bore a part.

This impressive ceremony affords a proper preliminary to the funeral services as conducted under the Ritual of the Grand Army of the Republic. It would, therefore, seem that the acceptance and general adoption of this ceremony by the Grand Army of the Republic, should be favorably considered; therefore, be it

Resolved, That Old Guard Post No. 23, Department of Ohio, Grand Army of the Republic, recommend for adoption by the Forty-fifth National Encampment the following form of ceremonial to be used as preliminary to burials of comrades of the Grand Army—the placing of a United States flag, of proper size, on the breast of a deceased comrade when convenient to do so, and that the following words, or words of similar import be used:

BY THE DEPARTMENT OF NEW YORK.

WHEREAS, The Rules and Regulations of the Grand Army of the Republic provide and require twelve officers for each Post; and

WHEREAS, A large number of Posts in the Grand Army of the Republic have not a membership equaling the number of officers in a Post; and

WHEREAS, The Rules and Regulations make no provision for the omission of officers nor for the consolidation of the same; and

WHEREAS, The Rules and Regulations permit the membership and presence of three to constitute a quorum for the transaction of legal business, evidently implying that a membership of only three will entitle the Post to retain its charter and remain in good standing in the Department; therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Department of New York, Grand Army of the Republic, that the Rules and Regulations be so modified and changed as to permit each and every Post to so consolidate the officers of the Post in such manner, from time to time, as shall seem to them most convenient and for the best and permanent interests of the Post. And be it further

Resolved, That the delegation from this Department shall present this preamble and resolution to the Forty-fifth National Encampment and urge its passage.

BY THE DEPARTMENT OF MASSACHUSETTS.

Resolved, That National Encampment be requested to formulate rules which will permit requests for monetary assistance by any Post, or for any general proposition, from any source, to Posts of the same Department, to be made only after application to, and permission in writing received from, the Department Commander and Department Council of Administration; and that applications for assistance to Posts outside of a Department shall have the approval, first, of the Department Commander and Council, and then, of the Commander-in-Chief and Executive Committee of the National Council of Administration. In each case a statement must be made, citing the circumstances which lead to the application.

To amend Section 1, Article II, Chapter V, Rules and Regulations. RETURNS AND REPORTS. After National Encampment in seventh line, change to read: "of Department Commander or Vice-Department Commanders," etc.

In explanation, Vice-Department Commanders are now members of the National Encampment, and this simply requires that they shall be so reported.

Resolved, That National Encampment be requested to so amend the Rules and Regulations, that Posts at their option, when their numbers are so reduced as to require it, may consolidate the offices of Adjutant and Quartermaster, and of Sergeant-Major and Quartermaster-Sergeant.

---

Resolved, That the National Encampment be requested to amend the Rules as to election of members of the National Council of Administration, to fill a vacancy in the Council by an appointment for the remainder of the term by the Department Commander of the Department of which the comrade was a member.

BY THE DEPARTMENT OF MAINE.

That a small metal enameled flag in colors, be attached to the bar pin of the badge worn by Post, Department and National Patriotic Instructors in order that their important offices may be more easily recognized, and that Rules and Regulations be amended to carry this resolution into effect.

BY THE DEPARTMENT OF TENNESSEE.

That Section 1, Article I, Chapter I, Rules and Regulations, be amended to allow five members, instead of ten, to maintain an organization.

XI. The following comrades are hereby appointed as Aides-de-Camp on the staff of the Commander-in-Chief.

HEADQUARTERS GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
MEMORIAL HALL, CHICAGO, ILL., FEBRUARY 20, 1912.

GENERAL ORDER
No. 5.

I. Soon again our comrades and people will assemble all over this fair land of ours to garland with sweet flowers the graves of our dead heroes, who realized for the world the dream of centuries, the hopes and aspirations of ages past; who made liberty a reality and planted truth and righteousness in this Nation to grow and blossom and ripen into the fairest heritage ever bequeathed by mortal men to the generations that should follow them since hope first dawned upon the human heart.

And from the banks of our streams we will cast flowers upon their waters, in token of our love for those who fought for liberty there and fell to rise no more until the morning reveille shall call them to the assembly of the Grand Army on the other side of the great divide.

And from shores of oceans we will trust our floral tributes to the tides to tell our deep devotion to the memory of those who fought for freedom there and fell to their last resting places beneath the rolling billows, lulled to sleep by the ceaseless murmurings of the sea that whispered to their departing souls, "God reigneth, and righteousness and liberty shall yet prevail in all the earth."

And then our hearts will go out in fervent prayer to the God of battles that all these—those who sleep where kindred hands may "cover them over with beautiful flowers," and those who sleep where only the sunlight kisses the flowers into bloom above their graves, and those who sleep beneath blue waves, where "old ocean's gray and melancholy waste" is the only decoration of their tombs—shall meet again and see each other "face to face," to be gloriously crowned as God's heroes, in the morning of that day that shall have no night.

Our Posts, wherever located, are urged to see to it that May 30th of the present year be properly observed as a sacred holiday, and to this end it is suggested that they associate with them our auxiliary and affiliated organizations—the Woman's Relief Corps, the Sons of Veterans, the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic and the Daughters of Veterans. All other patriotic societies, and especially the volunteers of the Spanish War and the Philippine Insurrection, and the public generally, should be invited to take part in the ceremonies of the day.

II. The Forty-fifth National Encampment, held at Rochester in August, 1911, ordered, that, as part of the public exercises of Memorial Day bells be tolled from twelve o'clock noon to twelve-five, that flags be placed at half-mast and that comrades remain standing with uncovered heads during this period.

It also ordered, that in addition to the reading of Lincoln's Gettysburg address, General Order No. 11 of the Grand Army of the Republic, issued by Commander-in-Chief John A. Logan on May 5th, 1868, designating May 30th as a day for strewing flowers and "otherwise decorating the graves of the comrades who died in defense of their country during the late rebellion," should be read as part of the public exercises. A copy of this General Order No. 11 is herewith enclosed. It is printed in suitable form, to be kept with other rituals, and Post Commanders are directed to preserve it for use in future years.

III. The following resolution was adopted by the Forty-fifth National Encampment. It is hereby promulgated for the guidance and governance of all our Departments and of all our Posts:

Resolved, by the National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic( in encampment assembled in the City of Rochester, New York, this 25th day of August, 1911, that this National body raises its dignified protest against all desecrations of Memorial Day by those who are seeking to introduce horse parades and other detracting shows and exhibitions tending to break down and destroy the sublime sacredness of the Soldiers' Sabbath; and be it further

Resolved, That the Commander-in-Chief and Council of Administration, prior to next Memorial Day, by proclamation and General Orders, impress upon each State Department and each Grand Army Post the necessity of prompt and united action toward influencing all patriotic citizens to refrain from either participating in or contributing to the further support of such parades, shows or exhibitions in the future, because only in this way can we hope to preserve to future generations the purity and sacredness of Memorial Day; and be it further

Resolved, That it is the hope of this National Encampment that so long as Memorial Day dawns on a living representative of the Grand Army of the Republic, when the assembly call shall sound, uniform will be donned, place taken and march be made in the ranks of the Veteran division to the music of the Union and under no other flag than the Stars and Stripes.

IV. Attention is again called to the following resolutions adopted by the Forty-fifth National Encampment:

Resolved, That this National Encampment, Grand Army of the Republic, invite the Sons of Veterans, United States of America, as their permanent official escort on all occasions, and that all Departments and Posts of the Grand Army of the Republic are recommended to invite them to act in a similar capacity for their organizations.

The Commander-in-Chief particularly urges our comrades all over this broad land of ours, not only to comply with the letter of this resolution, but also to carry out its spirit to the end that the Sons of Veterans may receive fuller encouragement for greater activity.

V. Our Departments, Posts and Comrades, as well as our auxiliary, the Woman's Relief Corps, and our affiliated associations, the Sons of Veterans, the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic and the Daughters of Veterans, are reminded that several hundred thousand of the men who died that the Nation might endure, sleep their last sleep in the Southland, which their sacrifice prevented from being separated from our Union.

In the years past we have aided the small phalanx of our Grand Army of the Republic, who live and labor in the Southern States, in a substantial way, to the end that the graves of our comrades there may be remembered in conformity to General Order No. 11, issued by Commander-in-Chief John A. Logan in 1868.

Contributions for the Southern Memorial Fund are hereby requested, and our friends are directed to send such amounts as they may wish to give to Comrade Cola D. R. Stowits, Quartermaster-General, 877 Ellicott Square, Buffalo, New York.

VI. Arrangements for the holding of the Forty-sixth National Encampment at Los Angeles, California, have been concluded. The date of September 9th to 14th has been agreed upon. Headquarters will be established at the Alexandria Hotel.

Comrade H. Z. Osborne has been elected local Executive Director. He may be addressed at the Chamber of Commerce, Los Angeles, California, by our Departments, Posts or Comrades who may desire to do so.

VII. Our Comrades are advised that their Pension Committee has been and is now busily, earnestly and conscientiously, engaged in the effort to secure to them more generous pension legislation, to the end that greater comforts may be available in their declining years. In this the Committee is being guided by the declared wish of the Forty-fifth National Encampment at Rochester. There is a fair prospect of a successful issue. If our Comrades, Posts or other organizations have any suggestions to offer bearing upon the subject, they are requested to forward them through regular channels so they may reach our Pension Committee through Chairman Comrade Ell Torrance, Minneapolis, Minnesota. Sending varied views and wishes to members of Congress result only in confusion. The Pensions' Committee is our lawful spokesman; if we desire to be heard and have our demands result in the best attainable result and benefit, let it speak for us.

VIII. Many inquiries having reached these Headquarters with reference to the enactment of a law incorporating the Grand Army of the Republic, our comrades are assured that no incorporation is contemplated during the present administrative year, nor will any act of incorporation be asked for or enacted.

This entire matter was, by act of the Rochester Encampment, laid over for one year, and before the Forty-sixth National Encampment shall convene the comrades will be fully advised of what has been proposed in this connection, so that the representatives and members of the Encampment will be able to deliberate with the fullest understanding of this question.

The bills formerly introduced are sleeping in congressional pigeonholes and will not be awakened until the order of the Grand Army of the Republic sounds the call. In the meantime our Comrades may rest assured that no Comrade of our Order has any ulterior motive or purpose in the matter.

IX. The Rochester National Encampment last August expressed its approval of the establishment of permanent headquarters by our Departments wherever this is possible, and also of the continuance in office of Comrades who have proved themselves competent and faithful, as Assistant Adjutants-general of Departments, as in this way records can be properly kept and preserved.

X. A "Lincoln Brochure" has been published under the authority and sanction of the National Encampment. It is a handsome volume commemorating the life, the service and the sacrifice of our great President. The book is one that deserves thorough dissemination among our people, and our Comrades and Posts are invited to aid the sale of this volume, which is published exclusively in the interest of our Order. It is a suitable gift book—price $1.64, postage paid. Orders may be sent to Wilbur F. Brown, 149 Broadway, New York City, who is the Secretary of our National Lincoln One Hundredth Anniversary Committee.

XI. Attention of our Comrades is called to an Act of Congress, approved December 22, 1911, which provides as follows, to-wit:

"No claim for arrears of pay, bounty or other allowances growing out of the service of Volunteers who served in the Army of the United States during the Civil War shall be received or considered by the accounting officers of the Treasury unless filed in the office of the Auditor for the War Department on or before December 31st, 1912."

This provision embraces claims of widows and heirs of officers and soldiers who served in the Civil War, as well as the officers and soldiers themselves.

XII. Upon the recommendation of the Department Commander, Comrade H. R. Gale of Bremerton, Washington, is hereby announced as the Assistant Inspector General for the Department of Washington and Alaska. He will report by letter to Inspector General McClay for specific instructions regarding his duties.

Comrade Franklin Dart is the Assistant Inspector General for the Department of Connecticut. His name was erroneously spelled Franklin Darb in General Order No. 4.

XIII. The following named committees, having been nominated by the several Department Commanders to assist in the work of the Standing Committee on the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg, they are hereby confirmed. They are requested to report to Comrade Ell Torrance, Chairman, Minneapolis, Minn.:

Bridgeport, Connecticut, January 25, 1913.

With this we send each and every Comrade, wherever he may be, greetings and the hope that this may be the happiest year of his life.

I. One of the most important semi-centennial anniversaries of the year is the Anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg, Pa., fought July 1st, 2nd and 3rd, 1863, and which resulted in a glorious victory for the Union Armies. Measures have long been in progress for the proper observance of this Anniversary and for the laying of the corner stone of a peace monument on the battlefield. The observances are to be participated in by both veterans who wore the Blue and veterans who wore the Gray, and it is believed that these ceremonies will demonstrate that the passions and animosities of war have passed away, and that we are all citizens of a reunited country and animated by the sole thought of how we can best work to make our common country greater, its influence larger, and its flag more respected by every nation of the earth.

The Grand Army by the action of its Forty-fifth and Forty-sixth Encampments has taken an active interest in this celebration and has appointed a standing committee to act in behalf of this organization. Pennsylvania, within whose borders the battle took place, has with its usual patriotism and generosity made a large appropriation to assist in defraying the expenses of the event.

Congress has also made an appropriation for the same purpose. The War Department, under the supervision of its officers, will erect a camp on the battlefield for forty thousand veterans, and will furnish rations for forty thousand veterans each day during the celebration, free of charge. Further details can be obtained from the Standing Committee hereafter announced.

In the name of the Grand Army of the Republic, I call on all comrades, whether participants in that battle or not, to give their best endeavors toward making this celebration a success from every point of view.

By vote of the Encampment, the Standing Committee on the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg is composed of the following Comrades:

|                              |                      |

By vote of the Encampment it was recommended that Department Commanders appoint legislative committees, whose duty it shall be to take prompt steps to secure adequate appropriations to meet the expenses of the comrades, who may be able to attend the Celebration and that the Department Committee previously appointed shall act with such Committee.

Department Commanders are requested to publish the names and addresses of the members of the Standing Committee and of the Department Committee in the next General Orders issued by them.

VII. The Assistant Adjutant General of each Department is requested to forward to these Headquarters without delay a copy of the Department Roster and a copy of the Journal of the last Department Encampment.

VIII. Information has been received at these Headquarters that all veterans who served in the Navy during the Civil War are entitled to a Service Medal, voted them by Congress. Any comrade entitled to one of these medals may secure a blank application for the same by writing Comrade Sherburne C. Van Tassell, Past Commodore Commanding, National Association of Naval Veterans, 73 Hamilton Ave., Yonkers, N. Y., who has kindly prepared the applications at his own expense; and enclosing return postage.

IX. Comrades are reminded that all appeals from the decision of a Department Commander must be made through Department Headquarters, and that all requests for a decision by the Judge Advocate-General must be made through the Commander-in-Chief.

X. The anniversaries of the birthdays of Abraham Lincoln and George Washington will occur in the month of February. It is recommended that Posts will co-operate with allied organizations and other societies and patriotic citizens in some memorial service on that day, that our native and adopted citizens may have the lesson of the services and sacrifices of these great Americans impressed upon them and be taught to emulate their example.

Corrections.

XI. In printing the names of comrades elected to the National Council of Administration, the name of the member from the Department of Florida should have been announced as J. F. Farris, St. Cloud, Florida instead of A. C. Shaffer, Lakeland.

The name of the member from the Department of Kansas was erroneously printed J. H. Harrison instead of J. N. Harrison.

Attention is called to an error in paragraph XI of General Orders No. 2. The amendment to Chapter IV, Article II, should read instead of "Section 4," Chapter IV, Article II, Section 1, Paragraph 4.

Requisition Blanks.

XII. Attention of Department Commanders is called to the requisition blanks which have been in use for the past year. Several Departments in the last month have sent in requisitions for supplies on the old blanks, and have sent them to these Headquarters instead of direct to the Quartermaster-General, thus causing delay in the filling of the order.

Southern Memorial Fund.

XIII. It has been the custom for several years for National Headquarters to give financial aid to the Southern Departments of our organization. The members of these Departments are each year called on to decorate the graves of thousands of our fallen comrades who sleep beneath the southern sun. That we may each year have the funds to devote to this purpose it is necessary to call on the Posts of our larger and stronger Departments for contributions for this fund, and it is hoped that Posts will at once send donations to Comrade Cola D. R. Stowits, Quartermaster-General, G. A. R., 877 Ellicott Square, Buffalo, N. Y.

XIV. The action of the Encampment on various matters and the appointment of other Committees and of Aides-de-Camp will be announced in General Orders No. 4.

Assistant Adjutants-General are requested to notify him promptly on receipt of these Orders, as to the location of their next Department Encampment, with date, if it has been fixed.

XVI. General Orders No. 1, which were issued in Kansas City, Mo., to Department Headquarters only, will not be issued to Posts, as the information contained therein is incorporated in these Orders.

XVII. Committees will be announced in future General Orders.

XVIII. The Commander-in-Chief takes this occasion to express to the comrades at large his sincere appreciation of the high honor conferred upon him by your representatives at the Fiftieth National Encampment. He feels deeply sensible of the great responsibilities of the office and earnestly requests the co-operation and assistance of every wearer of the "Bronze Button."

The Post is the foundation of our Order. Comrades can render the organization the best service by manifesting an interest in its affairs and helping to maintain its membership. Comrades, see to it that every man who "marched to the music of the Union" and is eligible has an opportunity to join our ranks. Let every comrade feel that he has a personal interest in keeping our grand organization up to the high standard it now holds in the estimation of our countrymen.

VI. Comrade W. J. Patterson, Pittsburgh, Pa., is appointed Trustee of the Permanent Fund, vice Comrade Thomas J. Stewart, deceased, and will serve until the next National Encampment.

VII. All requisitions for supplies, etc., with remittances therefor, must be sent direct to the Quartermaster-General, Comrade Cola D. R. Stowits, 877 Ellicott Square, Buffalo, N. Y. Drafts, checks and money orders should be made payable to him as Quartermaster-General. ALL REMITTANCES FOR AMOUNTS OF LESS THAN FIVE DOLLARS MUST BE SENT IN POSTOFFICE MONEY ORDERS. At the end of each month the Quartermaster-General will render to these Headquarters a report of his receipts and expenditures.

VIII. Department Commanders are requested to forward to these Headquarters, as soon as possible, the names of comrades whom they desire to recommend for appointment as Aides-de-Camp on the Staff of the Commander-in-Chief. They are requested to give the full name of the comrades recommended, their Post No. and Postoffice address, so that notice of appointment may be sent them promptly.

The official badge for Aides-de-Camp is as follows: Rank strap, silver eagle on black enamel field, ribbon composed of the flag, with buff border.

Following the custom of previous administrations, every Aide-de-Camp will be required to pay $1.00 for his badge and commission, which will cover the cost of badge, commission and engrossing, and the necessary printing and postage. On receipt of acceptance of appointment and remittance names of comrades thus accepting will be published in General Orders.

Comrades appointed Aides-de-Camp will be expected to be active and energetic in the interests of the Order. It is hoped that they will give especial attention to recruiting and to aiding weak Posts. They are requested to report to these Headquarters at the end of the year the result of their endeavors.

IX. Assistant Adjutants-General are requested to forward promptly to these Headquarters notice of the death of any permanent member of the National Encampment in their respective Departments, with brief sketch of military and Grand Army service, that it may be published in General Orders.

X. Assistant Adjutants-General are requested to send all Department General Orders to these Headquarters and also are asked to send without delay a copy of the Department Roster and Journal of the last Department Encampment.

XI. On the nomination of the Inspector-General, Assistant Inspectors-General will be appointed by the Commander-in-Chief. They will report to the Inspector-General by letter and will be advised by him as to the duties of their office.

XII. Comrades are advised that all requests for an opinion, or an appeal from the decision of a Department Commander must be made to the Commander-in-Chief through Department Headquarters. The Judge Advocate-General can only render an opinion to the Commander-in-Chief and will be obliged to return all requests sent to him out of the regular channels.

XIII. Assistant Adjutants-General are requested to notify these Headquarters promptly on receipt of these Orders, as to the location of their next Department Encampment, and the date, if it has been fixed.

XIV. General Orders No. 1, which were issued in Boston, Mass., to Department Headquarters only, will not be issued to Posts, as the information contained therein is incorporated in these Orders.

XV. The attention of Department Commanders is especially called to the Southern Memorial Fund. This fund is devoted to a purpose that should appeal to every member of the Grand Army of the Republic. It is used to decorate the graves of our comrades who died on the battle lines, in southern hospitals, and in southern prisons; our comrades who died that we might be crowned with the victory they helped to win. Shall their graves be neglected, while the graves of those who died at home are made shrines of patriotism?

It will require approximately eighteen hundred dollars each year to pay this tribute to their memory. This sum should be apportioned among the different Departments in proportion to their membership, and Department Commanders are urged to see that their respective Departments contribute their full share to this sacred fund. Department Commanders should, in General Orders, bring this to the attention of each Post in their respective Departments.

In connection with the foregoing, comrades are referred to the report of the Quartermaster-General for 1917, from which it will be seen that Connecticut and Minnesota were the only Departments which contributed more than fifty dollars to this fund, the contribution of Minnesota being greater than the combined contributions of the eight largest Departments.

XVI. At this time our minds and our hearts are filled with the burdens and the cares of the great world war into which we have been drawn. The Grand Army of the Republic is not only a patriotic organization, but it knows no middle ground between loyalty and disloyalty. Citizens of the United States are either whole-heartedly for their country, or they are against it.

XVII. Decisions of the Fifty-first National Encampment and Committees will be announced in General Orders No. 3.

XVIII. The Commander-in-Chief avails himself of this opportunity to further express to all his comrades his appreciation of the supreme honor conferred upon him by the Encampment at Boston, by its unanimous voice and vote.

He assures his comrades that he fully appreciates the responsibilities consequent upon the honor thus bestowed,—responsibilities ever increasing, and duties ever more exacting, by reason of the increasing age of all, and the passing of so many of our trusted leaders and counselors, and our rapidly thinning ranks.

He prayerfully invokes the active co-operation of all his comrades, of our noble auxiliary, the Woman's Relief Corps, and of our worthy allies, the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, the Sons of Veterans and the Daughters of Veterans, that the usefulness of our organization may not be lessened, or its dignity lowered.

Let our loyalty to our country, our fidelity to our comrades, our charity to the widows and orphans of our dead comrades in their hour of need, be forever unquestioned.

By command of

ORLANDO A. SOMERS,

Commander-in-Chief.

Robert W. McBride

Adjutant-General.

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS LIBRARY
MAY 8 1917

HEADQUARTERS
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC

Soldiers and Sailors' Memorial Hall,

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 5, 1917.

General Orders No. 4.

I. In accordance with the custom and requirements of the Grand Army of the Republic, Wednesday, May 30, will be observed as Memorial Day. This day for almost half a century has been devoted to honoring the memory of our loyal heroic dead. This is the day on which a grateful people pay loving homage to those who died that the Nation might live. This is the day set apart by our Order to fittingly commemorate the glorious deeds of the men who fell in battle or who followed the Flag in action to the end of the War and have since answered the last roll call.

It is the bounden duty of every loyal comrade to participate in the loving and patriotic services of Memorial Day. Let us remember that the men whose mortal remains now rest under the sod and the dew, rendered the full measure of devotion to our country. Let us not make this soldiers' memorial wholly a day of sorrow. While we drop the sympathetic tear for those who have left us since our last annual Memorial Day, let us also rejoice at the high standard of patriotism that inspired the stalwart youth of our land to stand as a living wall of defense of our country in the years of its peril.

Let us continue while our beloved Order lasts to keep Memorial Day bright before the American people. Let the living defenders of the Republic honor the memory of our dead comrades in arms by placing flags and flowers on the green mounds that cover them over.

"Flowers for the mourned ones, fresh in their bloom,
Gifts of the grateful brighten their tomb;
Sing the glad anthems, loved they so well,
Speak of their loyalty, deeds of theirs tell;
Visit each grave with a floral oblation,
Leave, where they slumber, love's sweet decoration."

II. As provided by the forty-fifth National Encampment, flags shall be placed at half mast and bells tolled for five minutes from 12 o'clock noon at all public Grand Army exercises on Memorial Day, during which time every comrade shall remain standing uncovered.

III. The National Encampment has directed that Lincoln's Gettysburg Speech and General Logan's Memorial Day Order shall be read as a part of the public services. The following is a copy of Past Commander-in-Chief Logan's Memorial Day Order:

HEADQUARTERS GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC

Washington, D. C., May 5, 1868.

General Orders No. 11.

1. The 30th day of May, 1868, is designated for the purpose of strewing with flowers, or otherwise decorating the graves of comrades who died in defense of their country during the late rebellion, and those bodies now lie in almost every city, village and hamlet churchyard in the land. In this observance no form or ceremony is prescribed, but Posts and comrades will in their own way arrange such fitting services and testimonials of respect as circumstances may permit.

We are organized, Comrades, as our Regulations tell us, for the purpose, among other things, "of preserving and strengthening those kind and fraternal feelings which have bound together the soldiers, sailors and marines who united to suppress the late rebellion." What can aid more to assure this result than by cherishing tenderly the memory of our heroic dead, who made their breasts a barricade between our country and its foes? Their soldier lives were the reveille of freedom to a race in chains and their death a tattoo of rebellious tyranny in arms. We should guard their graves with sacred vigilance. All that the consecrated wealth and taste of the nation can add to their adornment and security is but a fitting tribute to the memory of her slain defenders. Let no wanton foot tread rudely on such hallowed grounds. Let pleasant paths invite the coming and going of reverent visitors and fond mourners. Let no vandalism of avarice or neglect, no ravages of time, testify to the present or to the coming generations that we have forgotten as a people the cost of a free and undivided republic.

If other eyes grow dull and other hands slack, and other hearts cold in the solemn trust, ours shall keep it well as long as the light and warmth of life remains to us.

Let us, then, at the time appointed, gather around their sacred remains and garland the passionless mounds above them with the choicest flowers of springtime; let us raise above them the dear old flag they saved from dishonor; let us in this solemn presence renew our pledges to aid and assist those whom they have left among us a sacred charge upon the Nation's gratitude—the soldier's and sailor's widow and orphan.

II. It is the purpose of the Commander-in-Chief to inaugurate this observance with the hope that it will be kept up from year to year, while a survivor of the war remains to honor the memory of his departed comrades. He earnestly desires the public press to call attention to this Order, and lend its friendly aid in bringing it to the notice of comrades in all parts of the country in time for simultaneous compliance therewith.

III. Department Commanders will use every effort to make this Order effective.

By command of
JOHN A. LOGAN,
Commander-in-Chief.

N. P. CHIPMAN,
Adjutant-General.

IV. The Sunday preceding Memorial Day has for some years been observed as Memorial Sunday. Posts should arrange to attend some church on that day in goodly numbers and invite its allied orders to participate with them in the services.

V. Post Commanders should see that comrades are detailed to visit public and private schools in their vicinity on one or more days next preceding Memorial Day, to instruct the boys and girls in the lessons of the great Civil War. Comrades should remember on such occasions that they are living apostles of patriotism and that they are teaching the youth of the land by example as well as by precept. Children are keen critics and scan actions more than words. Wear the uniform of the Order whenever possible.

FLAG DAY

VI. The 14th day of June is recognized by the Grand Army of the Republic as Flag Day. The comradeship of our Order, in unison with all loyal and patriotic citizens, will display the colors of the Nation this day, in honor of the 140th anniversary of the adoption of the Flag by the Congress of the United States, June 14, 1777.

"Up! Up! with the old Flag—
Up! Up! to the sky!
O God! bless the old Flag!
Thy truth must not die!"

NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT

VII. The Commander-in-Chief, accompanied by the Adjutant General, Quartermaster General and Comrades Price and Beach, of the Executive Committee of the National Council of Administration, visited Boston during the first week in January. At a joint meeting with the Boston Encampment Committee, the date for the Fifty-first National Encampment was fixed for the week beginning Sunday, August 19. From assurances given by the Boston Committee, the State and City Officials, it seems nothing will be left undone to make the coming annual meeting of the National Encampment interesting and pleasant.

VIII. The following leading hotels in Boston have filed agreements not to increase their regular rates, varying from two to five dollars a day, during the week of the Encampment:

General Orders No. 6.

I. As previously announced in General Orders No. 5, the parade of the Grand Army of the Republic at the Fifty-first National Encampment will take place at Boston, Mass., on Tuesday, August 21, 1917.

II. The parade will be organized by Departments, each Department under command of the Department Commander or the senior officer of the Department present. Departments will be assigned to a position in line in order of seniority of date of charter and will form in columns of four files front. Each Department will promptly take up the line of march as uncovered. Distances between Departments will be 60 feet; between Posts, 20 feet; between files, 4 feet, which distances will be maintained throughout the march.

III. The column will form promptly at 9:15 a. m. and will move at 10:00 a.m. sharp.

IV. The formation of the parade will be reported by Comrade J. Payson Bradley, Chief Marshal, to Comrade William M. Hahn, Chief of Staff to the Commander-in-Chief at 9:45 a. m.

V. A preparatory gun will be fired at 9:45 a. m. The signal to march will be three guns fired at 10:00 a. m.

VI. Department Commanders will carefully superintend the formation of their respective Departments and will close up to the left of the Department on their right, but on the march will maintain a distance of 60 feet between Departments. Markers will be placed designating the place of formation for each Department. The guide will be right throughout the march, except when passing the reviewing stand of the Governor at the State House and the reviewing stand of the Mayor at the City Hall, when guide will be left.

VII. Department Commanders must not leave the column after passing the reviewing stand, but will continue the march with their Departments to the place of dismissal of the column. When the reviewing stand has been passed, they must not attempt to review their commands. No organization will be allowed to leave the column until regularly dismissed.

VIII. In passing the reviewing stands, colors will be dipped at six paces from the reviewing officer and will be maintained at salute until six paces beyond him. Officers with side arms will give the officers' salute with the sword. Officers without side arms will salute by touching their right hand to the brim of the hat and looking toward the reviewing officer. Comrades in the ranks will not salute, but will turn their eyes toward the reviewing officer.

IX. Bands and drum corps will take the time of the preceding musical organization, so that the marching column may maintain the same step. All bands and drum corps will cease playing on Beacon Street at Walnut Street, to be designated by a marker and must resume playing 100 feet from the reviewing stand at the State House, this point also to be designated by a marker, and will continue playing until they reach Washington Street. All bands will cease playing on Washington Street at Temple Place, to be designated by a marker, and will resume playing at a point on Temple Place to be designated by a marker and will continue playing until they reach Boylston Street.

X. The march will be in common time, the cadence 90 steps to the minute. The bands marching in close proximity will alternate in playing. All bands must play in passing the reviewing stands.

XI. The Commander-in-Chief will review the column at the reviewing stand on Tremont Street; His Excellency, the Governor of Massachusetts, will review the parade at the State House; and his Honor, the Mayor of Boston, will review the parade at the City Hall.

XIII. It is desired that every member of the Grand Army of the Republic present in Boston will make an effort to participate in the parade, whether he has a uniform or not, but it is hoped that all will make an effort to appear in the regulation uniform of the Order.

XIII. No flags or standards except the national and state flags, and Department and Post flags and standards will be allowed in the parade. Regimental flags or banners will not be allowed.

These automobiles will be found on the south roadway of Commonwealth Avenue, right resting on Fairfield Street, and comrades unable to march will report to Comrade George A. General Orders No. 4.

MEMORIAL DAY.

I. In accordance with the custom of the Grand Army of the Republic, Thursday, May 30, will be observed as Memorial Day.

The approach of another Memorial Day finds us in the shadow of a great war. Let our observance of the day be such as to evidence our unswerving and unfailing devotion to our country. The mightiest military power the world has ever known has compelled us to draw the sword for the maintenance of our national honor and the defense of free government. Today not only are our sons and our grandsons emulating the deeds of their sires, in upholding the honor of the old Flag, but our hearts are gladdened by the fruition of the hope of Lincoln, and the sons and the grandsons of the followers of Lee are marching shoulder to shoulder with the sons and the grandsons of the followers of Grant, under the Stars and Stripes, and all are offering their lives in the service of a united country. We thus have renewed assurance that "our honored dead" did not "die in vain."

As we strew flowers on the graves of our fallen comrades, let us also strew flowers on the graves of the Confederate dead who sleep in our cemeteries,—not in forgetfulness of the past, but in recognition of this realization of the hope that nerved our arms in the dark days of fratricidal strife.

"No more shall the war cry sever,
Or the winding rivers be red;
They banish our anger forever
When they laurel the graves of our dead;
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;
Love and tears for the Blue,
Tears and love for the Gray."

Time has wrought the fulfillment of Lincoln's prophetic words in the closing paragraph of his first Inaugural Address: At last "the mystic cords of memory, stretching from every battlefield and patriot grave to every living heart and hearthstone all over this broad land," . . . "touched," . . . "by the better angels of our nature," . . . "swell the chorus of the Union."

II. As provided by the Forty-fifth National Encampment, flags shall be placed at half-mast and bells tolled for five minutes from twelve o'clock noon at all public Grand Army exercises on Memorial Day, during which time every comrade shall remain standing uncovered.

III. The National Encampment has directed that Lincoln's Gettysburg Speech and General Logan's Memorial Day Order shall be read as a part of the public services. The following is a copy of Past Commander-in-Chief Logan's Memorial Day Order.

HEADQUARTERS GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,

Washington, D. C., May 5, 1868.

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 11.

1. The 30th day of May, 1868, is designated for the purpose of strewing with flowers or otherwise decorating the graves of comrades who died in defense of their country during the late rebellion, and those bodies now lie in almost every city, village, and hamlet churchyard in the land. In this observance no form or ceremony is prescribed, but posts and comrades will in their own way arrange such fitting services and testimonials of respect as circumstances may permit.

We are organized, comrades, as our regulations tell us, for the purpose, among other things, "of preserving and strengthening those kind and fraternal feelings which have bound together the soldiers, sailors, and marines who united to suppress the late rebellion." What can aid more to assure this result than by cherishing tenderly the memory of our heroic dead, who made their breasts a barricade between our country and its foes? Their soldier lives were the reveille of freedom to a race in chains and their death a tattoo of rebellious tyranny in arms. We should guard their graves with sacred vigilance. All that the consecrated wealth and taste of the Nation can add to their adornment and security is but a fitting tribute to the memory of her slain defenders. Let no wanton foot tread rudely on such hallowed grounds. Let pleasant paths invite the coming and going to reverent visitors and fond mourners. Let no vandalism of avarice or neglect, no ravages of time, testify to the present or to the coming generations that we have forgotten as a people the cost of a free and undivided Republic.

If other eyes grow dull and other hands slack and other hearts cold in the solemn trust, ours shall keep it well as long as the light and warmth of life remain to us.

Let us then, at the time appointed, gather around their sacred remains and garland the passionless mounds above them with the choicest flowers of springtime. Let us raise above them the dear old flag they saved from dishonor. Let us in this solemn presence renew our pledges to aid and assist those whom they have left among us a sacred charge upon the Nation's gratitude—the soldier's and sailor's widow and orphan.

2. It is the purpose of the Commander-in-Chief to inaugurate this observance with the hope that it will be kept up from year to year while a survivor of the war remains to honor the memory of his departed comrades. He earnestly desires the public press to call attention to this order and lend its friendly aid in bringing it to the notice of comrades in all parts of the country in time for simultaneous compliance therewith.

3. Department Commanders will use every effort to make this order effective.

By command of

N. P. CHIPMAN,
Adjutant General.

JOHN A. LOGAN,
Commander-in-Chief.

IV. The Sunday preceding Memorial Day has been observed as Memorial Sunday for many years. Posts are urged to attend some church on that day, inviting its auxiliary and its allied orders to participate in the services.

V. Post Commanders should detail comrades to visit the schools in their vicinity on the day preceding Memorial Day. The children look forward to this visit and are anxious to hear something of the history of the Civil War from the men who participated in it.

FLAG DAY.

VI. The 14th of June, Flag Day, should be observed by the members of the Grand Army of Republic and they will display the flag this day in honor of the 141st anniversary of its adoption by the Congress of the United States.

This year the day should have special significance for us. Our country is at war, and thousands of our American young men are in a foreign country, fighting under the same flag under which we fought during the Civil War, for democracy and the freedom of the world. Let us do our part insofar as we are able to encourage and uphold these boys in their struggle. Our fighting days are over, comrades, but "we can rally 'round the flag, boys, rally once again, shouting the battle cry of Freedom."

NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT.

VII. Your Commander-in-Chief and Adjutant-General visited Washington the first week in February to attend a meeting of a Subcommittee of the Committee on Legislation. While there we visited Mr. McAdoo, Director-General of Railroads and discussed the question of transportation and rates to the National Encampment. He assured us that the necessary transportation facilities would be at our disposal and granted us a rate of one cent a mile. This is the lowest rate which has been given us for many years, and should assure us of a large attendance at the National Encampment in Portland. The rate applies only to members of the Grand Army of the Republic and their families, and members of the Army Nurses' Association, Woman's Relief Corps, Ladies of the G. A. R., Daughters of Veterans, Sons of Veterans and Sons of Veterans' Auxiliary.

The Encampment will meet the week beginning Sunday, August 18. The Commander-in-Chief with a Sub-Committee of the Executive Committee will visit Portland, Oregon early in May and at that time will choose the Headquarters Hotel and complete all details for a successful meeting of the Encampment. As soon as details are completed, General Orders will be immediately issued to Departments, that they may select their Headquarters, etc.

PENSIONS.

VIII. During our visit to Washington, the matter of pensions was the important question before the Committee on Legislation. We discussed the various bills which had been introduced in Congress, favoring an increase in pensions and after a conference with the Pension Committee of the Senate, at which meeting, General Sherwood, Chairman of the House Committee on Pensions, was present, it was agreed that the Smoot Bill was the most liberal bill which could possibly pass the Congress at this session. This provides for a minimum pension of $30 a month for a comrade 72 years of age, who served 90 days and a maximum of $40 a month for two years or more of service. Comrades are urged to use their influence with their Senators and Representatives in Congress in behalf of this bill, which will bring much needed relief to thousands of soldiers who are barely existing on their present pension.

SOUTHERN MEMORIAL FUND.

IX. It becomes necessary to again urge upon the members of our Order the necessity of contributing to the Southern Memorial Fund. At a meeting of the National Council of Administration held in the Hotel Vendome, Boston, Mass., at the close of the 51st National Encampment, it was voted that the Commander-in-Chief should assess a certain amount on the larger and stronger Departments, if contributions were not made freely. Two weeks ago letters were addressed to the Commanders of twenty-four Departments, asking them to secure from the Posts or individuals of their Department, a certain sum as their proportion of the money needed. Responses to these letters have been very encouraging, with one exception. The Commander in nearly all cases issued circular letters immediately to the Posts stating the amount expected from the Department and asked for immediate response. As the amount asked from each Department did not average 50 cents for each Post in the Department, it seems as though our comrades would have sufficient pride to see that their Posts contributed. All contributions should be in the hands of the Quartermaster-General by May 1st at the latest.

X. The Fifty-first National Encampment adopted a resolution authorizing the Commander-in-Chief to appoint a committee of seven to investigate the matter of decoration of graves in the South, the raising of money for this purpose and the proper method of procedure; this committee to report to the next National Encampment. The following named comrades will constitute the committee:

Cola D. R. Stowits Buffalo, New York, Chairman.

W. M. Scott, Atlanta, Georgia.
Charles H. Haber, National Soldiers' Home, Virginia.
E. K. Russ, New Orleans, Louisiana.
A. J. Gahagan, Chattanooga, Tennessee.
Cos Altenberg, Little Rock, Arkansas.
William James, Jacksonville, Florida.

XI. At a meeting of the Trustees of the Permanent Fund, Comrade W. J. Patterson, Pittsburgh, Pa., was elected Treasurer and has filed the necessary bond.

XII. Comrade James D. Bell, Brooklyn, N. Y., is appointed a Trustee of the Permanent Fund to succeed Michael J. Cummings, deceased, and will serve until the next National Encampment, the remainder of Comrade Cummings' unexpired term.

XIII. Comrade W. A. Ketcham is appointed a member of the Committee on Rules and Regulations, and Ritual, Vice-Comrade Harvey M. Trimble, deceased.

XIV. Department Commanders who have not already nominated a comrade for Assistant Inspector-General will send their nomination immediately on receipt of these Orders to Comrade Thomas H. Brown, Inspector-General, Sioux Falls, S. D.

XV. Dr. John M. Adams, Surgeon-General, P. O. Box 53, Station A, Cincinnati, Ohio desires to have all Department Medical Directors communicate with him immediately on receipt of these Orders.

XVI. In the great war which has been thrust upon us, money is as essential as men. Our country needs, and has called for both. While our fighting days are over, many of us can still help by responding to the call for money. Those who can, should invest every dollar they can spare in Liberty Bonds, War Savings Stamps or Thrift Stamps. We may not be able to do much, but every dollar will help, and the dollar you loan may be the dollar that wins the war.

UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING.

XVII. The American people have looked for, and expected, an expression from our great and most patriotic association—the Grand Army of the Republic—on this momentous question. In its last National Encampment at Boston, Mass., August, 1917, a resolution favoring universal military training was indefinitely postponed. It was too universal in its provisions.

Since that time we have been strongly urged by patriotic societies and people, to commit the Grand Army of the Republic to this principle. All such must await the action and voice of our coming Encampment at Portland.

Naked, defenseless, and unprepared—the fruits of our past policies of pacifism—we are drawn into the maelstrom of the world's greatest war. As best we may, we are atoning for our faults, in hurry and haste, in worry and waste. Wisely, we believe, we are now selecting from the fairest fields of American manhood, the choicest fruits to place upon the altar of our country. In view of the vast numbers who have been taken from our industries and are now either on the field of battle or in training, and others who are enrolled and subject to draft, we do not deem it best at this time that still others, upon whom not only our own people, but our allies, must depend for food, fuel and munitions, should be diverted from their labors in field, factory and mine, for military training.

We do believe, however, that there should be added to the curriculum of every high school in the land, the course of athletics now required in the training camps at our cantonments, and we would make this training compulsory.

XVIII. The following comrades, having complied with Paragraph VIII, General Orders No. 2, are hereby appointed Aides-de-Camp on the Staff of the Commander-in-Chief:

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, MARCH 25, 1919.

{ General Orders
No. 7
Series 1918-1919 }

I. As announced in General Orders No. 6 from these Headquarters, March 10th, the 53d National Encampment will be held in the City of Columbus, Ohio, during the week beginning September 7, 1919.

II. Your Commander-in-Chief has been advised in a communication, dated March 19, 1919, from Mr. Gerrit Fort, Assistant Director, "Division of Traffic," United States Railroad Administration, Washington, D. C., that a reduced rate will be made for the National Encampment at Columbus, the same as was made last year to Portland, Oregon, namely, one cent per mile.

III. State Department Encampments will be accorded a rate of not exceeding two cents per mile to their Department meetings, where the Department makes application for said rates to the Director General of Railroads, Washington, D. C. Department Commanders will bear this in mind and act accordingly.

IV. Tickets for the National Encampment will go on sale September 1st, 1919, with same limitations as to time as last year and will be governed by the same rules and regulations as to stop overs, etc.

V. Further detailed information giving as full particulars as possible will be announced later in General Orders from these Headquarters, covering matters regarding the National Encampment.

VI. To avoid many inquiries as to who all will be entitled to certificates on which to request transportation to those Encampments, the Director General of Railroads stipulates to the Commander-in-Chief that the rates here given, shall only apply to members of the Grand Army of the Republic and their families; members of the Woman's Relief Corps; Ladies of the G. A. R.; Daughters of Veterans; Sons of Veterans; Sons of Veterans' Auxiliary; National Association of Army Nurses of the Civil War; and members of the family of members of each of the above organizations, accompanying them to the Encampment. The interpretation given to "family" is, the immediate members of one's family, who live with one.

VII. The following named comrades having fully complied with all the requirements, they are hereby appointed Aides-to-Camp on the Staff of the Commander-in-Chief:

MEMORIAL DAY, MAY 30TH, 1919.

I. We are in the midst of a great fomulative period, not only in the history of our own United States, but the world at large. Lulled into security by the voice of the pacifist and German propagandist, for more than two years we shut our eyes to the terrible war that so recently startled mankind. Finally the swish of the submarine and the deadly torpedo reminded us that "Eternal vigilance is the price of Liberty."

By the efforts of the Grand Army of the Republic, the latent spirit of patriotism was aroused, our pulse began to beat, our country was assailed, our blood ran at fever heat. The memorable words of General John A. Dix again rang out through the land: "If any man attempts to haul down the American Flag, shoot him on the spot." By resolutions in your Post rooms and Encampments, you demanded that the indiscriminate slaughter of our people must be avenged; that Germany had menaced us and forced us into war and we must fight.

It was you, my comrades, who demanded a declaration of war; it was you who demanded that German propaganda and sedition must be driven from our land, and that anyone found guilty of destroying our resources, or in any way interfering with a vigorous prosecution of the war, should be tried for treason and punished, if found guilty. You fully realized that the paths of peace were the best; but you also realized that our country was assailed and we must take part in fighting her battles, and under the impetus of your loyalty and patriotism, twenty-one million intrepid, brave young Americans knelt at Liberty's shrine and firmly resolved that American independence must stand in the future as it had stood in the past, a beacon of liberty to mankind.

And from the ranks of the American boys, four million were selected to form the heroic fighting legions of the world; two million to go; two million to stay. Over there the intrepid bravery of the "Yanks" broke the morale and defeated the German Army. Many of them were your lineal descendants, and they reminded me of your trials and sacrifices upon more than two thousand battlefields of the Civil War, in which you saved us a stronger and better Union than ever before.

It was your sacrifices that made it possible to win the World's War. Oh! How great was the sacrifice over there and how lamentable the loss here. More than two hundred and fifty thousand of our stars of blue were turned to gold. Their graves billow our land alongside of our own beloved comrades. Remember them all as our Nation's heroes,

"More worthy of the victor's blaze
Than those of Rome's imperial days."

How eminently proper and fitting it is then, my comrades, that we should assemble in this world's greatest epoch; weave our chaplets anew, and with zeal and patriotism, trial and sacrifice, born in the vortex of war and welded in the red heat of battle, seek their resting place, and with the poet say:

"To our Nation's sacred dead,
We consecrate this day;
And crown each sleeping warrior's head,
With blossoms of the May."

I am but performing a most sacred duty when calling upon the Grand Army of the Republic, the Woman's Relief Corps, and all allied societies to blend their efforts with our patriotic citizenship, and with fitting veneration and pride, give cheer to the living, and honor and homage to those who died in the columns of our fighting legions and are now our mightiest departed.

My comrades, let no portion of your sacred duties on the 30th of May be obscured by the faintest shadows of neglect, and let us hope and feel sure that the bodies of our brave soldier boys of this World War, left to slumber where they fell, will be tenderly and sacredly guarded and cared for by the peoples for whom they made the great patriotic sacrifice.

II. As provided by the Forty-fifth National Encampment, flags shall be placed at half-mast and bells tolled for five minutes from 12 o'clock noon at all public Grand Army exercises on Memorial Day, during which time every comrade shall remain standing uncovered.

MOTHER'S DAY.

III. This year, May 11, the second Sunday in May, observed for some years past as "Mothers' Day" should have especial significance for us. As we watch the mothers of the boys of the present war, and their anxieties and sufferings for their sons, we more fully realize what our own mothers suffered during the dark days of the Civil War. A little child once said that "mother is the most beautiful word in the English language;" and well it may be, since "mother" is the most beautiful character in the world. Comrades are reminded to observe the day by wearing a carnation or other white flower on the lapel with the "little bronze button."

MEMORIAL SUNDAY.

IV. The Sunday preceding Memorial Day has been wisely set aside for Divine service. May its observation be blessed by appropriate exercises, may patriotic sermon, speech and song characterize the day.

V. Let General Logan's Order designating Memorial Day and Mr. Lincoln's Gettysburg Address be made a part of our Memorial Day Exercises.

GENERAL LOGAN'S MEMORIAL DAY ORDER.

HEADQUARTERS GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC.

WASHINGTON, D. C., MAY 5, 1868.

GENERAL ORDERS, NO. 11.

1. The 30th day of May, 1868, is designated for the purpose of strewing with flowers or otherwise decorating the graves of comrades who died in defense of their country during the late rebellion, and those bodies now lie in almost every city, village, and hamlet churchyard in the land. In this observance no form or ceremony is prescribed, but posts and comrades will in their own way arrange such fitting services and testimonials of respect as circumstances may permit.

We are organized, comrades, as our regulations tell us, for the purpose, among other things, "of preserving and strengthening those kind and fraternal feelings which have bound together the soldiers, sailors, and marines who united to suppress the late rebellion." What can aid more to assure this result than by cherishing tenderly the memory of our heroic dead, who made their breasts a barricade between our country and its foes? Their soldier lives were the reveille of freedom to a race in chains and their death a tattoo of rebellious tyranny in arms. We should guard their graves with sacred vigilance. All that the consecrated wealth and taste of the Nation can add to their adornment and security is but a fitting tribute to the memory of her slain defenders. Let no wanton foot tread rudely on such hallowed grounds. Let pleasant paths invite the coming and going to reverent visitors and fond mourners. Let no vandalism of avarice or neglect, no ravages of time, testify to the present or to the coming generations that we have forgotten as a people the cost of a free and undivided Republic.

If other eyes grow dull and other hands slack and other hearts cold in the solemn trust, ours shall keep it well as long as the light and warmth of life remain to us.

Let us then, at the time appointed, gather around their sacred remains and garland the passionless mounds above them with the choicest flowers of spring-time. Let us raise above them the dear old flag they saved from dishonor. Let us in this solemn presence renew our pledges to aid and assist those whom they have left among us a sacred charge upon the Nation's gratitude—the soldier's and sailor's widow and orphan.

2. It is the purpose of the Commander-in-Chief to inaugurate this observance with the hope that it will be kept up from year to year while a survivor of the war remains to honor the memory of his departed comrades. He earnestly desires the public press to call attention to this order and lend its friendly aid in bringing it to the notice of comrades in all parts of the country in time for simultaneous compliance therewith.

3. Department Commanders will use every effort to make this order effective.

By Command of

JOHN A. LOGAN,
Commander-in-Chief.

N. P. CHIPMAN,
Adjutant General.

PRESIDENT LINCOLN'S ADDRESS AT GETTYSBURG

November 19, 1863

Four score and seven years ago, our Fathers brought forth upon this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. Now we are engaged in a great Civil War; testing whether that Nation, or any Nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that Nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. But, in a larger sense, we can not dedicate, we can not consecrate, we can not hallow this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it far above our power to add or detract. The world will little note nor long remember, what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us, the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us, that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion, that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain, that this Nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people, and for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

RAILROAD RATES AND TRANSPORTATION

XXVII. As previously announced in General Orders a special rate of one cent a mile has been granted by the United States Railroad Administration to those attending the National Encampment at Columbus, Ohio.

XXVIII. Tickets will go on sale August 15, instead of September 1st, and will be good for sixty days from date of sale. Tickets will be sold via diverse routes to Columbus on the basis of one cent per mile in each direction via routes traveled, on going and return trip. Stopovers will be allowed going and returning.

XXIX. Those from the west desiring to go further east, after the Encampment at Columbus, may purchase summer tourist tickets at Columbus for the nearest summer resort to their destination. These tickets may be bought as late as September 30, with final return limit October 31, 1919, or the summer tourist ticket may be bought at original starting point, with a stopover at Columbus, en route.

XXX. Tickets may be secured only on presentation of identification certificates, which will be sent to the Assistant Adjutant-General of each Department early in July, and which may be secured from him by the various Posts as arranged by each Department last year. Comrades are warned against securing or giving these certificates to anyone not entitled to them.

XXXI. For the information of those who may not have real General Orders No. 7, the following information is again given:

To avoid many inquiries as to who all will be entitled to certificates on which to request transportation to the National Encampment, the Director General of Railroads stipulates to the Commander-in-Chief that the rates here given, shall only apply to members of the Grand Army of the Republic and their families; members of the Woman's Relief Corps; Ladies of the G. A. R.; Daughters of Veterans; Sons of Veterans; Sons of Veterans' Auxiliary; National Association of Army Nurses of the Civil War; and members of the family of members of each of the above organizations, accompanying them to the Encampment. The interpretation given to "family" is, the immediate members of one's family, who live with one.

XXXII. Therefore, it will be seen that the rate will NOT apply to the following:

1. Veterans of the Civil War who are not members of the Grand Army of the Republic.
2. Widows of former members of the Grand Army of the Republic unless they are members of the Army Nurses Association, Woman's Relief Corps, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, Daughters of Veterans or Sons of Veterans' Auxiliary.
3. Daughters of deceased members of the Grand Army of the Republic, unless they belong to one of the organizations mentioned in the preceding paragraph.
4. Sons of deceased members of the Grand Army of the Republic unless they belong to the organization known as the Sons of Veterans.
5. Sons and daughters of members of the Grand Army of the Republic, unless they are living in their father's household, or belong to one of the organization mentioned in paragraphs 2 or 5.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 30, 1921.

General Order No. 6 (Series 1920-21)

I. The Fifty-fifth National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic will be held in Indianapolis during the week beginning September 25, 1921. Headquarters will be temporarily established at the Severin Hotel.

II. The Central Passenger Association has accorded a rate of one cent per mile for the Comrades, their wives, widows or dependent members of the family, and for army nurses. All other organizations attending the Encampment will be required to pay a fare and a half for a round trip ticket. Every passenger association, with the exception of the New England Passenger Association, has accorded the same rate as the Central Passenger Association.

III. The Commander-in-Chief being of the opinion that an explanation is due (a) as to the location of the Encampment, and (b) as to rates, makes the following statement:

(a) We had received a very satisfactory invitation from Portland, Maine, which was tentatively accepted, the Executive Committee being of the opinion that that would be an ideal place for the holding of a National Encampment; but upon application to the New England Passenger Association, it was found that no concession as to rates could be obtained, and for that reason that location was abandoned. We then received an invitation from Springfield, Mass., which was regarded by us as an exceedingly desirable place; but upon application to the Trunk Line Association, we succeeded only in obtaining a one-cent rate for the boys and a fare and a half for all other organizations up to the New England line, from which points the regular rates would be required, and for that reason Springfield was given up. The effort was then made to ascertain some other desirable locality, but without avail, and it either had to come to Indianapolis or be given up, and so Indianapolis was selected.

(b) The rates. Of the entire membership of the Grand Army, approximately 13 per cent. reside in New England, 27 per cent. west of the Mississippi and 60 per cent. between the line of New England and the Mississippi river, and under the circumstances it was deemed necessary to locate the Encampment somewhere within the territory of the Central Passenger Association.

We felt that it was hardly fair to our auxiliary and the allied organizations to require them to submit to a $5.83 rate while the boys traveled on a $2.16 rate, and we made every effort with the passenger associations to reduce the rate to our auxiliary and allied organizations, even if it became necessary to increase it somewhat on the Comrades themselves; but we found the associations obdurate, and we had to accept what we could get.

IV. Mr. Edgar M. Heaton, 1415 Merchants Bank Building, Indianapolis, is Chairman of Hotels Committee, to whom should be referred all requests for hotel accommodations.

V. Newton J. McGuire, Room 9, Court House, Indianapolis, is Chairman of the Housing Committee. Requests for rooms should be made to him at the above address.

Further information will be given in future Orders.

In Memoriam

Indianapolis, Ind., July 30, 1921.

General Order No. 7 (Series 1920-1921)

ORLANDO A. SOMERS

It is again our sad duty to announce

"The muffled drum's sad roll has beat The soldier's last tattoo."

Orlando A. Somers, a Past Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, was gathered to his fathers at his home in Kokomo, Ind., Thursday, June 9, 1921.

In the heyday of his youth, he carried a musket for thirty-seven months in Company D, Thirty-ninth Indiana Infantry. Following the war, he was many times signally honored by his fellow citizens and his Comrades. As Secretary and President of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland, with which he so long and bravely served; as Post Commander of T. J. Harrison Post No. 30, Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic for many years; as Department Commander of the Department of Indiana in 1909-10; as Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic in 1917-18; in the many positions in civil life to which he was elected by his friends and neighbors, and appointed by the President of the United States, he graced and honored the positions he was called upon so often to fill.

His Comrades, his neighbors, the community, the State in which he lived, will miss his invaluable counsel, service and assistance.

The rays of the setting sun in the beautiful cemetery of Kokomo, in which he was laid away on the 11th, were a fitting accompaniment to the taps that mournfully told of the end that had come to him.

*"There Honor comes a pilgrim gray
To bless the turf that wraps his clay,
And Freedom shall a whole repair
To dwell a weeping hermit there."*

He rests in peace.

HEADQUARTERS GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC

Building of U. S. Grant Post, No. 327, Dept. N. Y.

489 Washington Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

April 24, 1922.

General Orders No. 5.

I. Memorial Day.

The thirtieth day of May will again be observed by the Grand Army of the Republic as a sacred Memorial Day, commemorative of the services and sacrifices of their comrades who died that this Republic might live.

Originally set apart as the day upon which the survivors of the War for the Union should mark with flags and strew with flowers the graves of their comrades who had fallen by their side on the field of Honor, while each succeeding year has diminished the number of those survivors yet living, it has added to the numbers of the defenders of the Union to whom this honor should be paid, until now of the two millions of brave men who returned to their homes from the scene of strife, a mere handful remain. To these who yet survive the duty and privilege of Memorial Day becomes the more sacred and imperative.

To assist in this service has come the welcome aid of our sons and daughters and many auxiliary organizations who ask the privilege of sharing in this honor—this assistance should be gladly accepted.

During these later years the honor of the Nation has called for the same last full measure of devotion from its sons in yet other wars, and a greater and broader significance has been given to this Memorial Day. until now the whole nation observes it as sacred to the memory of all its sons who in any age or on any field have given their lives for their country.

To every patriotic son or daughter of America it should be the great holy day of the year. In no sense should it be made a day of festivity or an ordinary holiday. Let the request be made from clergymen that during the Sunday preceding the day itself a service be devoted in all churches to the memory of the deeds which this day commemorates. During Monday, the 29th, let delegations from the posts in every locality visit the schools, and take part in such patriotic services as may be carried on therein.

Let the sons of veterans and the soldiers of all wars be earnestly invited to participate in these exercises, to the end especially that when the veterans of the sixties are no longer here to do this work others may be ready to carry on the same patriotic service into the future.

It is expected that as a part of the services of Memorial Day should be read everywhere the General Order, No. 11, of General John A. Logan, Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic in 1868, then establishing the observance of this day, and also the address of President Lincoln delivered at Gettysburg November 19, 1863. It is recommended further that this year the letter of General U. S. Grant, impressing the importance of this day upon his comrades should also be read. The text of these is appended as a part of this General Order.

II. Order of General John A. Logan.

"HEADQUARTERS GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,

"Washington, D. C., May 5, 1868.

"General Orders No. 11.

"I. The 30th day of May, 1868, is designated for the purpose of strewing with flowers, or otherwise decorating the graves of comrades who died in defense of their country during the late rebellion, and those bodies now lie in almost every city, village and hamlet churchyard in the land. In this observance no form or ceremony is prescribed, but Posts and comrades will in their own way arrange such fitting services and testimonials of respect as circumstances may permit.

"We are organized, Comrades, as our Regulations tell us, for the purpose, among other things, 'of preserving and strengthening those kind and fraternal feelings which have bound together the soldiers, sailors and marines who united to suppress the late rebellion.' What can aid more to assure this result than by cherishing tenderly the memory of our heroic dead, who made their breasts a barricade between our country and its foes? Their soldier lives were the reveille of freedom to a race in chains and their deaths a tattoo of rebellious tyranny in arms. We should guard their graves with sacred vigilance. All that the consecrated wealth and taste of the nation can add to their adornment and security is but a fitting tribute to the memory of her slain defenders. Let no wanton foot tread rudely on such hallowed grounds. Let pleasant paths invite the coming and going of reverent visitors and fond mourners. Let no vandalism of avarice or neglect, no ravages of time, testify to the present or to the coming generations that we have forgotten as a people the cost of a free and undivided republic.

"If other eyes grow dull and other hands slack, and other hearts cold in the solemn trust, ours shall keep it well as long as the light and warmth of life remains to us.

"Let us, then, at the time appointed, gather around their sacred remains and garland the passionless mounds above them with the choicest flowers of springtime; let us raise above them the dear old flag they saved from dishonor; let us in this solemn presence renew our pledges to aid and assist those whom they have left among us a sacred charge upon the Nation's gratitude—the soldier's and sailor's widow and orphan.

"II. It is the purpose of the Commander-in-Chief to inaugurate this observance with the hope that it will be kept up from year to year, while a survivor of the war remains to honor the memory of his departed comrades. He earnestly desires the public press to call attention to this Order, and lend its friendly aid in bringing it to the notice of comrades in all parts of the country in time for simultaneous compliance therewith.

"III. Department Commanders will use every effort to make this Order effective.

"By Command of

JOHN A. LOGAN,
Commander-in-Chief.

"N. P. CHIPMAN,
Adjutant-General."

III. President Lincoln's Address at Gettysburg.

"Four score and seven years ago, our Fathers brought forth upon this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. Now we are engaged in a great Civil War, testing whether that Nation, or any Nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that Nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. But, in a larger sense, we can not dedicate, we can not consecrate, we can not hallow this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it far above our power to add or detract. The world will little note nor long remember, what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us, the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us, that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion, that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain, that this Nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people, and for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

IV. Dedication of the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D. C.

It is decided that this most beautiful work of the architect and sculptor shall be dedicated on Memorial Day, May 30, next, with appropriate ceremonies. The dedicatory Ritual has been assigned to the Commander-in-Chief, and he will be assisted by other high officials of the Grand Army of the Republic. This is an occasion which will attract many to Washington.

V. Assignments of Vice Commanders-in-Chief.

The Commander-in-Chief has detailed Senior Vice Commander-in-Chief Robert W. McBride to represent him at the Department Encampments of Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, Colorado, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Illinois.

He has also detailed Junior Vice Commander-in-Chief Henry A. Johnson to attend the Encampments of the Departments of Delaware, Maryland and West Virginia.

VI. In Memoriam, William A. Ketcham.

Past Commanders-in-Chief Torrance and Van Sant and Senior Vice Commander-in-Chief McBride are detailed as a Committee to prepare a memorial of Past Commander-in-Chief. William A. Ketcham, and to present it at the National Encampment in Des Moines in September.

VII. Aides de Camp Appointed Since Order No. 4

The Comrades named below are hereby appointed Aides de Camp upon the Staff of the Commander-in-Chief. He desires to convey to them his pleasure at their acceptance of the nomination to this honorable position. He looks to them to advance the interests of the Grand Army of the Republic in their several localities.

(VII) The following Resolutions were adopted at the Fifty-sixth National Encampment at Des Moines, Iowa.

RESOLUTION

No. I

Whereas, The 14th Regiment of Brooklyn, New York, was organized in 1844, and in 1847 it became the 14th Regiment of the State of New York, and

Whereas, This Regiment fought all through the Civil War as the 14th Regiment, and in the Spanish-American War and the World War at all times with great credit to itself and honor to our Nation; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved, That it is our desire, expressing the wish and sentiment of the 14th Regiment and the men who have served in it through all wars and who are members of the Regiment today, that the United States Government through its War Department, allow the 14th Regiment to keep that honored number—the 14th—as its permanent and legal name.

RESOLUTION

No. II

Whereas, It has come to the knowledge of the Grand Army of the Republic that an organized and widespread effort is in progress—

First: To have the designation of the Civil War of the sixties changed from "The War of the Rebellion" to "The War Between the States" in all official papers and publications of the Government of the United States; and,

Second: To have the names of Robert E. Lee and "Stonewall" Jackson included among those of "Distinguished Americans" placed on the Amphitheatre in Arlington Cemetery; and,

Whereas, The said organization has issued to "The United Daughters of the Confederacy" an "appeal" for aid in accomplishing the purpose stated; in which is admitted the interest of the Grand Army in the movement, and the name of the Grand Army of the Republic is used in an unauthorized and objectionable manner; therefore

Be It Resolved, By the Grand Army of the Republic in National Encampment at Des Moines, Iowa, this 29th day of September, A. D. 1922, that we make a solemn and emphatic expression of our sentiments in regard to the matter cited, to the following effect, namely:

First: As a part of the great host of the sixties who stepped forth joyfully to do all and bear all that the Nation's life might be preserved; and speaking for the vast majority of our comrades in arms who have gone on before, and who have now no means of defending their honor except through us; we place ourselves firmly and finally on the ground chosen by our great President and Commander-in-Chief, Abraham Lincoln, and defined by him in his imperishable address at Gettysburg, namely, that the conflict of the sixties was "A GREAT CIVIL WAR, testing whether any government conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal can long endure;" and that on the victory of the National cause in that conflict depended the determination "that government of the people, and by the people, and for the people, should not perish from the earth."

The great army of the Nation, drawn from all the states of the Union, north and south, except one, sprang into being only when the life of the Union was threatened; and it disbanded as soon as that object was attained. To ascribe to it any other purpose is to falsify history and to put the brand of mercenaries on us and all our fallen comrades.

Second: The designation "The War Between the States" is to us peculiarly hateful and insulting.

It is false in fact. There never has been a war between the states. While there have been causes of dispute and even threats of conflict, the American people have always found a way of peaceful settlement within the law and under the Constitution which was formed with that very end in view. We, as participants, did not go to war at the behest of a state or against a state, but under the flag of the Federal Union and for its preservation.

The designation proposed obliterates the distinction between the objects sought in the sixties by the opposing forces; makes the destruction of the Union as praiseworthy as its defense; reduces the splendid heroism of a great Nation battling for its existence, to the level of a petty affray between local factions. If the Civil War was no more than that, then it was a gigantic mistake and an unspeakable crime on the Federal side; its heroism and sacrifice, its waste, its heart-break and rivers of blood, all went for naught; what we looked upon as the defense of the National life was not worth a day nor an hour of the four years of agony; the fondest hope of our lives, that we had been useful in our day and could leave to our children's children the example of a patriotic duty well performed and a worthy object attained by devotion and sacrifice,—dissolves before our eyes into the fond delusion of old men who have had their futile day, and who have need to hide away from the pity or reproach of a wiser generation.

Third: We recognize in the movement we deprecate, an effort, two generations after it was slain, to revive the corpse of secession and obtain for disunion a standing that it could not win on the field of battle. Who are they who set at naught the verdict of a sovereign people, and would turn back the current of National development? We protest against any phraseology in public documents that affords even so tardy a recognition of the so-called Southern Confederacy.

Fourth: We do not cherish hatred toward our opponents on the battlefields of the Civil War. On the contrary, those of us especially who have made our homes in the South have formed with them many ties of friendship and respect which we manifest, as do they, in joint meetings and co-operation with them, and other courtesies as occasion offers. We recognize them as true men who stood bravely, as Americans always do, for a cause in which they believed; but on the cause of secession we think today as we did sixty years ago. We are flattered to have the authors of the "appeal" regard us as "broad-minded men," as they say; but we protest that we are not sufficiently "broad" or lax to favor the cause against which we made war in our youth.

At the same time, we do not think it is necessary to designate the Civil War as a title so offensive as "The Rebellion." If the officers of the organization for changing the name had put themselves in touch with the Grand Army of the Republic in an effort to come to an understanding, instead of presuming to speak for us, there might possibly have been found some ground of common agreement.

In the meantime, and with all the earnestness of which we are capable, we protest against the naming of the war by the vanquished party, and dictation of their choice to the Government which they failed to destroy; and this the more, because they choose a name which is—and is intended to be—disparaging and offensive to those who stood in the breach in the hour of the Nation's peril; and because, in the act, they assume an air partly patronizing and partly contemptuous toward those who saved the Nation's life, and back up their project with the false and insolent claim that, "The South was the Constitutional Party, and when she withdrew from the Union she carried the constitution out with her."

Fifth: In the matter of placing the names of Lee and Jackson on the Amphitheatre in Arlington, we call attention to the fact that neither of these persons is a "Distinguished Man" in the sense of the act providing for the selection of the names. While it is true that both made good records as young men in the war with Mexico, yet their army service then, and even with the added opportunities of the fourteen years that followed, was not sufficient merit to raise them above the grade of colonel in the one case and captain in the other. The truth is that they worked their way into prominence by leadership in a stupendous conspiracy to destroy the Nation, and not to serve it. Obviously the Government cannot recognize honors bestowed on them by a so-called Confederacy whose legitimate existence it can never by any possibility admit.

The fact stands forth, for all the world to see, that the desire of these people is not that the South be represented, for that is provided for by the names of southerners that do appear; nor that eminent services in the American Army be not overlooked, for the two men chosen gave no services of the kind; their whole anxiety is through these men to secure honors for the Confederate cause.

If things have come to such a pass that, at the dictation of a group of malcontents, it is necessary for the Government of the United States of America publicly to condone the act of the army of officers who went over to the enemy to make effective the greatest political crime of the nineteenth century, we suggest that a decent respect for the proprieties would urge that selection be made of men who proved themselves worthy by some signal act of patriotism or by working their way up to high command in the active service of their country.

RESOLUTION

No. III

Be It Resolved, That the Grand Army of the Republic recommend a change in text in the Pledge of Allegiance in common use today, as follows:

Omit the words "my flag" and insert the words "The American Flag," so that the Pledge of Allegiance will read as follows:

"I pledge allegiance to the American Flag and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for all."

RESOLUTION

No. IV,

Resolved, That this Encampment recommend that the heads of the various Departments of the United States Government modify their policy of retaining no employe in the Civil Service of the Government who is over eighty (80) years of age, by making an exception in favor of veterans of the Civil War, who are recommended by the heads of the various offices in which they are employed, who are able to discharge their duties faithfully and efficiently.

RESOLUTION

No. V

Resolved, That the Flag Circular, promulgated by the War Department for the information and guidance of the United States Army, be adopted as the rule governing the conduct of the Grand Army of the Republic in the display and use of the Flag in public appearance and in our Post Halls.

Resolved, That we recommend to our Auxiliary and other Allied Orders the use of the instructions of the Flag Circular for the government of their conduct toward the Flag.

Resolved, That the said Flag Circular be published in full in General Orders, and in the Journal of the Proceedings of this Encampment.

("Flag Circular.")

WAR DEPARTMENT,
The Adjutant General's Office,
Washington, D. C.

Many inquiries concerning the proper method of displaying, hanging and saluting the United States flag are being received in the War Department with the evident object of securing some authoritative statement relating to the subject.

In this connection it should be remarked that while it is within the province of the War Department to prescribe rules and regulations governing the matter in question for observance within the Army, yet it is beyond its province to prescribe any such rules or regulations for the guidance of civilians or to undertake to decide questions concerning the subject that are presented by civilians.

There is no Federal law now in force pertaining to the manner of displaying, hanging or saluting the United States flag or prescribing any ceremonies that should be observed in connection therewith. In fact there are but three Federal laws on the statute books that have any bearing upon this subject, one, the act of Congress approved February 20, 1905 (33 Stat., L., p. 725), providing that a trade-mark can not be registered which consists of or comprises, inter alia, "the flag, coat of arms or other insignia of the United States, or any simulation thereof," the second, the act of Congress approved February 8, 1917 (39 Stat., L., p. 900), providing certain penalties for the desecration, mutilation or improper use of the flag, within the District of Columbia, and the third, the act of Congress approved May 16, 1918 (40 Stat., L., p. 554), providing, when the United States is at war, for the dismissal from the service of any employee or official of the United States Government who criticises in an abusive or violent manner the flag of the United States. Several States of the Union have enacted laws which have more or less bearing upon the general subject, and it seems probable that many counties and municipalities have also passed ordinances concerning the matter to govern action within their own jurisdiction.

Warning against desecration of the American flag by aliens has been issued by the Department of Justice, which has sent the following notice to Federal attorneys and marshals:

'Any alien enemy tearing down, mutilating, abusing or desecrating the United States flag in any way will be regarded as a danger to the public peace or safety within the meaning of regulation 12 of the proclamation of the President issued April 6, 1917, and will be subject to summary arrest and punishment.'

It is the practice in the Army, each day in the year, to hoist the flag briskly at sunrise, irrespective of the condition of the weather, and to lower it slowly and ceremoniously at sunset, indicating the commencement and cessation of the activities of the day, and to display it at half staff on Memorial Day (May 30th) from sunrise until noon and at full staff from noon until sunset, and also on other days specially designated for that purpose by the proper authority, the flag always being first hoisted to the top of the staff before being lowered to the half-staff position.

There has been some question among civilians concerning the exact location of a flag hung at 'half staff.' Theoretically, the flag is always hung on a separate staff, much shorter than the staffs usually erected on buildings, and as a consequence a flag hung at half staff would be located much higher on the ordinary flag staff than under the present practice, but still the custom of placing the half-staffed flag in about the center of the flag pole, whatever its length may be, is rather generally observed throughout the country and this Department sees no real objection to this custom.

Considerable discussion has arisen throughout the country concerning the proper manner of hanging and displaying the flag for decorative purposes. As already stated, there is no Federal law governing the subject, and individual opinion differs as to the procedure that should or should not be followed. It has been suggested that as far as possible the hanging of the flag should be restricted to suspending it from a flag pole in the regular way; that for mere purposes of decoration the national colors should be arranged in the form of bunting and not in the form of the flag; that the flag should not be tied in a bowknot nor festooned over doorways or arches; that if it is nevertheless the desire to use the flag for decorative purposes it should always be hung flat whether on the inside or the outside of buildings, with the union to the north or east, so that there will be a general uniformity in the position of the union of each flag displayed; that the flag should rarely be displayed in a horizontal position or laid flat; that it should not be used as a cover over a table desk or box; that under no circumstances should it be hung where it can easily be contaminated or soiled, or be draped over chairs or benches to be used for seating purposes, and that no object or emblem of any kind should be placed above or upon it. This Department sees no objection to flying the flag at night on civilian property, provided it is not so flown for advertising purposes.

When flags are used in connection with the unveiling of a statue or monument they should not be allowed to fall to the ground but should be carried aloft to wave out, forming a distinctive feature during the remainder of the ceremony.

When the flag is used on a bier or casket at a funeral, the stars should be placed at the head. In no case should the flag be allowed to touch the ground.

At military funerals the flag should not be buried with the casket about which it is draped, but should be removed just after the closing of the funeral ceremonies, as is the practice at burials in national cemeteries.

When a body is shipped to relatives by the War Department for private burial, the flag which drapes the shipping case is turned over to relatives, with the remains, for use at the funeral, and may be retained by them.

It is becoming the practice throughout the country, among civilians, to display the national flag on all patriotic occasions, especially on the following days:

Lincoln's Birthday, February 12th.

Washington's Birthday, February 22d.

Mothers' Day, second Sunday in May.

Memorial Day, May 30th.

Flag Day, June 14th.

Independence Day, July 4th.

In certain localities other special days are observed in the same manner.

In cases where the United States flag is displayed on a pole, or otherwise, along with State flags, pennants, emblems, etc., the United States flag should always be hoisted first and hung or displayed at the top; in parades the United States flag should always have the place of honor, and should never be hung or displayed with the union down except as a signal of distress at sea.

International usage forbids the display of the flag of one nation above that of any other nation in time of peace. When the flags of two or more nations are to be displayed, they should be flown from separate staffs, on from separate halyards, of equal size and on the same level.

Existing regulations governing the Army provide that when officers and enlisted men pass the national flag, not encased, they will render honors as follows: If in civilian dress and covered, they will uncover, holding the headdress opposite the left shoulder with the right hand; if uncovered, they will salute with the right-hand salute. A flag unfurled and hung in a room in which officers or enlisted men of the Army are present will be saluted by them the first time they may have occasion to pass it, but not thereafter. The hand salute is as follows:

'Raise the right hand smartly till the tip of the forefinger touches the lower part of the headdress or forehead above the right eye, thumb and fingers extended and joined, palm to the left, forearm inclined to about 45°, hand and wrist straight; at the same time look toward the person saluted.

Drop the arm smartly to the side.'

No anthem, hymn or musical air has been recognized by any Federal law as the national anthem, hymn or air, but Army and Navy regulations provide that the musical composition familiarly known as the "Star Spangled Banner" shall be designated as the national air of the United States of America. It should be stated, however, that these regulations are binding only upon the personnel of the military and naval service.

Whenever the national anthem is played at any place where persons belonging to the military or naval service are present, all officers and enlisted men not in formation are required to stand at attention, facing towards the music, excepting when the flag is being lowered at sunset, on which occasion they are required to face towards the flag. If in uniform, covered, they shall salute at the first note of the anthem, retaining the position of salute until the last note of the anthem. If not in uniform and covered, they are required to stand and uncover at the first note of the anthem, holding the headdress opposite the left shoulder until the last note is played, excepting in inclement weather, when the headdress may be held slightly raised. The custom of rising and remaining standing and uncovered while the Star Spangled Banner is being played has grown in favor among civilians.

Old or worn out flags should not be used either for banners or for any secondary purpose. When a flag is in such a condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display, it should not be cast aside nor used in any way that might be viewed as disrespectful to the national colors, but should be destroyed as a whole, privately, preferably by burning or by some other method lacking in any suggestion or irreverence or disrespect due the emblem representing our country.

It should be borne in mind that the views set forth in this circular are merely suggestive and that it is not the intention of the Department to give them out as authoritative.

P. C. HARRIS,
The Adjutant General.

January 25, 1921."

NOTE.—The above quoted flag circular is being revised and brought up to date. Perhaps same will be issued and may be inserted instead of the above by the time the Journal reaches the Government Printing Office.

RESOLUTION

No. VI

Whereas, We recognize that there are many so-called veterans in civil life and of later wars, therefore

Be It Resolved, That this 56th National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, recommends and advises that the title of the Sons of Veterans be changed to the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War, or to Sons of Union Veterans of the War 1861-1865. (Suggested name, Sons of the Defenders of the Nation.)

RESOLUTION

No. VII

While the Grand Army of the Republic properly ignores all political questions, there is no reason why it should refrain from making its position plain on all non-political questions that vitally affect our national welfare. Now is a time that calls for plain speaking on the labor question, involving the relative rights of labor, both organized and unorganized, the employers of labor and the people at large. There can be no just solution of this question that does not recognize and protect the rights of each and all of these groups.

We recognize the dignity of labor, whether it be labor of the hands or of the head, for labor, to be of the greatest value, must be directed by intelligence. We also recognize the interdependence of capital, of employer, and of employee. Each has its rights, and each should be protected in those rights, and neither should be allowed to tyrannize over the other.

At this time a situation exists which threatens the wellbeing of millions, growing out of the coal miners' strike and the threatened strike by the employees of the railroads. Untold suffering is threatened by the obstinacy of one side or the other of those interested in the mining of coal, while the paralyzing of commerce and the starvation of millions is threatened through similar obstinacy of those controlling and directing and of those employed in operating the railroads. The issues involved in both are purely selfish. They relate only to questions of dollars and cents, regardless of the interests of the helpless and dependent millions who must have coal or freeze, and who must have food or starve. The interests of these millions are paramount; they dwarf into insignificance any question involved in either of the strikes above referred to. We recognize the right of those engaged in labor to organize for mutual protection and assistance, and to promote and advance their mutual interests. We recognize, however, the right of all men to work, whether they are or are not members of any particular organization. This we hold is an inalienable right of every American citizen. Any denial of this right is un-American. We recognize the right of every man to quit work at any time and for any reason, subject to his liability to answer in damages if in so doing he violates a contract or otherwise injures another or others. We deny the right of any man or any body of men, organized or unorganized, to arbitrarily interfere with any person who wants to work at any lawful labor at any time or under any circumstances, when he and his would-be employer are agreed.

We deny the right of any man who has abandoned his work to interfere with or try to prevent another from taking the place he has abandoned, and from doing the work he has refused to do. Such conduct is destructive of the unquestionable right of every free man.

We especially and emphatically deny the right of any man or body of men, whether organized or unorganized, to threaten to use or to use violence in any attempt to prevent any man or any number of men from engaging in any lawful and honest occupation. That exhibition of brutality and savagery that recently shocked the civilized world and disgraced our neighboring state of Illinois, illustrates the danger of permitting such interference. Neither excuse nor palliation of that butchery can grow out of the fact that the coal miners of the country were on a strike. The men who were murdered were merely exercising their rights as American citizens when they insisted on working and mining coal on the land of their employers.

We denounce as criminal a strike by the employees of any great public service corporation, such as railroads or street railroads, or a strike by the employees of any great industry upon which the existence of the great mass of the people depends, such as our coal mining industry, that takes no account of the public suffering that may thereby be caused. Such a situation condemns those who are responsible therefor. For a purely selfish interest they inflict harm on millions. Whoever is to blame for such a strike should be held criminally responsible, and should be severely punished.

If either side claims that wrong has been done or is being done or threatened by the other side, there should be a tribunal to try the question of the alleged wrong or threatened wrong, with power to impose adequate punishment on whoever is found to be at fault. A strike in such cases furnishes no remedy, while, in addition to the loss of time and money which is inevitable, it is reasonably certain to lead to violence, destruction of property, and murder.

RESOLUTION No. VIII

The 56th National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic has been so hospitably treated, so generously received, that they find it difficult to find language that suitably expresses their profound gratitude.

The State of Iowa in the person of their chief executive, the City of Des Moines by their Mayor, and the good people of this, the fairest City of the West, have all entertained us bountifully. Automobiles and street cars have carried us up and down to our perfect comfort.

In the many cities we have visited there has been no one where our welcome has been more happily displayed than here in Des Moines. We will carry back to our homes a most pleasant recollection of the happy week we have spent in the thoroughly American city of Des Moines!

As the State of Iowa was one of the most prompt in furnishing soldiers to the Union Army, so now do we find the State of Iowa eager to welcome the survivors of that great struggle and deeply grateful to those who saved the Union and made our great nation possible.

God bless the State of Iowa!

(Passed by a unanimous standing vote.)

(VIII) Resolutions as regard the action of sundry Confederate Veteran organizations and their Auxiliaries, slandering the name and memory of the great Emancipator, were presented and same were tabled, as the subject was deemed unworthy of further mention in the proceedings of the Encampment.

(IX) The City of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, was selected as the place of meeting for the 57th National Encampment. The Commander-in-Chief and his Staff, together with representatives of our Auxiliary and Allied Societies with Committees of the G. A. R. and Citizens' Committees of the City of Milwaukee, met during the first week in January, 1923, in that city to make arrangements, for said National Encampment.

We were cordially greeted and bountifully entertained by our comrades and the Citizens' Committee. The business of this meeting was conducted with harmony and full understanding of all interested parties, and the usual contract for our entertainment was duly signed and delivered.

Hotel Wisconsin will be the National Headquarters during the Encampment.

(X) The time fixed and agreed upon for the 57th National Encampment G. A. R. at the City of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, is the first week of September, commencing Sunday, September 2d, 1923. The City of Milwaukee is supplied with many first-class hotels, and we are promised ample accommodations for all who may attend the Encampment.

The detailed list of Hotels will be given later with prices for entertainment.

Honorable Frank Cleveland, Vice-Chairman, Milwaukee Association of Commerce, is Manager of the Convention Bureau, to whom all applications MUST be made for Hotel accommodations.

(XI) The National Encampment passed several resolutions making recommendations for certain provisions to be included in the Bursum Pension Bill then pending in Congress.

The fate of the Bursum Bill, later known as the Bursum-Fuller Bill, has passed into history. Hence the delay in this General Order.

Senator Bursum has introduced another Pension Bill which has been favorably reported to the Senate by the proper Committee.

(XII) The Standing Committee on Legislation G. A. R. and the Commander-in-Chief will be in session in Washington, D. C., February 6th, 1923, and later and will make every honorable effort to bring about a reasonable Pension Bill, for the care and support of our Comrades and their Widows, concerning which information will be given in detail in next General Order.

(XIII) The following Aides-de-Camp have accepted appointment, and are now on the Staff of the Commander-in-Chief:

Commander-in-Chief: Gaylord M. Saltzgaber, Van Wert, Ohio.

Senior Vice Commander-in-Chief: Frank A. Walsh, Milwaukee, Wis.

Junior Vice Commander-in-Chief: George T. Leech, Baltimore, Md.

Surgeon General: C. W. Burrill, Kansas City, Mo.

Chaplain-in-Chief: Charles L. Shergur, Union Springs, N. Y.

II. The following appointments on the staff of the Commander-in-chief are hereby announced:

Adjutant General: Andrew S. Burt, Van Wert, Ohio.

Quartermaster General: Cola D. R. Stowits, Buffalo, N. Y.

Judge Advocate General: Robert W. McBride, Indianapolis, Ind.

Inspector General: Otto Shimansky, Sandusky, Ohio.

Patriotic Instructor: Charles O. Brown, Oak Park, Ill.

Assistant Quartermaster General and Custodian of Records: Samuel P. Town, Philadelphia, Pa.

Senior Aide-de-Camp: William L. Gage, South Braintree, Mass.

III. National Headquarters are established at 107 West Main Street, Van Wert, Ohio, and all official communications should be sent to the Adjutant General at that address.

IV. The Commander-in-Chief takes this opportunity to extend his heartfelt thanks to all of the members of the Fifty-seventh National Encampment for their generous support and friendship.

V. Aides-de-Camp will be appointed upon proper application. Department Commanders are urged to promptly forward to National Headquarters names of comrades for appointment. Give full name of comrade, Post number and Postoffice address. Notices of appointment will be sent them.

The official badge for Aides-de-Camp is as follows: Rank strap, silver eagle on black enamel field, ribbon composed of the flag with buff border.

Every Aide-de-Camp will be required to pay $1.00 for his badge and commission, which covers cost of same together with printing and postage. If a comrade has a badge he will remit 50c only to cover cost. Upon appointment and remittance, the names of such comrades will be published in General Orders.

VI. Assistant Adjutants General must forward all requisitions for supplies, etc., with remittances therefor direct to Comrade Cola D. R. Stowits, Quartermaster General, 502 Peoples Bank Bldg., Buffalo, N. Y. Drafts, Checks and money orders should be made payable to him as Quartermaster General. All remittances for amounts of less than $5.00 must be sent in postoffice money orders.

VII. Assistant Adjutants General are requested to forward promptly to these Headquarters, notice of the death of any permanent member of the National Encampment in their Departments, with brief sketch of the military and Grand Army service, for publication in General Orders.

VIII. The Fifty-seventh National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic having authorized the "meeting with the posts in regular session without votes, of the Sons of Veterans," all matters of detail must yield to carrying out the main purpose.

A list of the Sons of Veterans may be furnished to the G. A. R. posts by the local Commander of the Sons of Veterans, and if a Son of Veteran desiring admission is from another community he should prove his character to the satisfaction of the Sons of Veterans in the same community as the G. A. R. post. I think it unnecessary for a Son of Veteran to have the countersign used by the G. A. R. In ceremonies of the G. A. R. involving secrecy, Sons of Veterans may be temporarily excluded.

The rule adopted applies only to admission, but in a spirit of amity, the extent to which Sons of Veterans may participate in discussions and activities of the post, may be governed by each post.

IX. Certain resolutions were adopted by the Fifty-seventh National Encampment. They were not edited by the Committee, and the Commander-in-Chief presents them as they were received by him. They are as follows:

“A. We favor a pension bill granting to any soldier, sailor or marine who served in the Union Army or Navy for a period of ninety days or more from 1861 to 1866, and who was honorably discharged, a pension of $72.00 per month, and all widows of such persons who were married to them prior to June 27, 1910, a pension of $50.00 per month. The increase to apply to all now on the pension roll automatically.

“B. Whereas, the historical collection known as the Lincoln-Oldroyd collection at Washington, D. C., which consists of three thousand articles pertaining to Abraham Lincoln, now in possession of Capt. O. H. Oldroyd, who has spent sixty-three years in accumulating same, and

“Whereas, it being the desire of Capt. Oldroyd that this property be retained in the house where Abraham Lincoln passed to the Great Beyond;

“Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the Grand Army of the Republic in Fifty-seventh National Encampment assembled, adopts the following resolutions to be presented to each Representative and Senator that the United States government may see the advisability of owning these relics, that they may be retained in Washington in the home where Abraham Lincoln passed away.

“Be It Further Resolved, that in view of the fact that Henry Ford has offered Capt. Oldroyd a small sum of fifty thousand dollars for this collection, these men who followed that great Lincoln through the dark and trying days of the Civil War protest vigorously against the removal of this property from the home where Abraham Lincoln died, to become the property of a private citizen of Detroit.

“Be It Further Resolved, that it be understood that among these relics for which an offer of fifty thousand dollars has been made is the chair in which Abraham Lincoln sat while compiling his list of cabinet officers and which he occupied while writing his inaugural address; the order written by Lincoln removing General McClellan from the command of the Army of the Potomac on November 5, 1862, and that naming General Grant as commander-in-chief of the Union Army, as well as a letter written to him discharging a man from the company which he commanded in the Black Hawk war in 1832 signed ‘A. Lincoln.’

“Be It Further Resolved, that this Encampment consider that no more fitting memorial could be offered to preserve the memory of Abraham Lincoln than the house in which his soul took its flight; that this Encampment consider that no more fitting memorial could be offered than to preserve the thousands of relics which speak so eloquently of his life.

“Be It Further Resolved, that this treasured collection of Capt. Oldroyd, a collection of which the American people should be proud and the American government should be proud to possess, stand just where it has stood for sixty years without misplacing a single article, and

“Be It Still Further Resolved, that a bill looking toward the purchase of this collection be introduced in Congress next December; that favorable consideration of the bill be urged by this body at this Encampment and by all organizations in all sections of the country.

“C. Whereas, July 12, 1864, there occurred a pivotal event which was the greatest crisis of the War of the Rebellion. After three and one-half years of the most strenuous effort, an appalling loss of men, and the creating of a stupendous national debt, a powerful army of the enemy was battering at the very doors of Washington, within sight of the capitol itself. The crisis was so great that the hearts of many of the people sank in complete despair. Panic prevailed throughout the country, and the greenback, the barometer of public feeling, fell to 35 cents on the dollar.

“Whereas, General Early, with a strong detachment of the Confederate army, had swept down the Shenandoah Valley, defeated General Wallace on the Monocacy River and on July 11th came in sight of the capitol. Only the timely arrival of two divisions of the Sixth Corps sent by General Grant from Petersburg stopped and drove him back. President Lincoln was so deeply concerned about the emergency that he met the troops at the wharves in the first place, and later went with them to Fort Stevens and stood on the parapet while the battle was raging. Gen. Horatio Wright admonished him at first to get down and when a shot struck a Pennsylvania surgeon standing near Mr. Lincoln, Wright spoke more decisively to Mr. Lincoln that he must get down. This is the only time when a President of the United States stood with his troops under fire. Not only the fate of the nation but the fate of free government and all of Mr. Lincoln's fame hung by a hair in the balance.

“Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the Grand Army of the Republic believe it is an obvious duty of Congress to convert this historical spot into a striking memorial to President Lincoln. The fort should be restored to its war-time condition and the grounds appropriately marked to show the positions of the Confederate army and of the various troops that rushed out of the fort and drove them back. The National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic presents to Congress its strong conception of a national and patriotic duty to create out of the remains of Fort Stevens a great memorial which shall stand forever as a historic reminder of this awful crisis of the War of the Rebellion and the gallantry of the men who rescued the nation from destruction.

“D. The incoming Commander-in-Chief was directed to appoint a committee of the Grand Army of the Republic to meet a similar committee of the Sons of Veterans to determine the name which the Sons of Veterans shall hereafter bear. This action was taken at the request of the Sons of Veterans.

(The following comrades are selected to serve on that committee, namely: John R. King, Baltimore, Md., Past Commander-in-Chief; L. F. Arensberg, East Millsboro, Pa., Past Department Commander; James Tanner, Washington, D. C., Past Commander-in-Chief.)

“E. Whereas, the recent President of the United States, Warren G. Harding, has been called away suddenly from earthly scenes, in the prime of life and the fullness of his usefulness;

“Resolved, that the American people, without regard to differences of opinion upon minor matters, are called upon to grieve for the loss of an official leading a spotless life, having a lofty conception of public duty, and showing a self-sacrificing devotion to the interests of our country and its people.

“Resolved, that we proffer our deepest sympathy to the wife of our late President; to his father, Comrade George T. Harding, now our Surgeon General, and to the other relatives who know best the exalted character of the departed one, and therefore feel most keenly the crushing weight of personal bereavement.

“Resolved, that we express to the National Congress our hope that in its wisdom it may find some means of so lightening the burdens of the chief executive that one need not feel that he is taking his life in his hands when he accepts that high office.

(Adopted by a rising vote, unanimously.)

“F. The honored statesman, the beloved President, Warren G. Harding, forever of precious memory, in an oration before a vast audience in the Amphitheater in Arlington National Cemetery, on Memorial Day, 1923, said:

“‘We rejoice that so many of the Grand Army of the Republic survive to give us the very soul of the day they originated.’

“This opportune statement recalls to our minds the fact that Memorial Day was established in General Orders No. 11, issued May 5, 1868, by Major-General John A. Logan, then Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic.

“Whereas, the observance of Memorial Day then inaugurated has been kept up from year to year until a vast majority of the citizens of this Republic acknowledge its sacredness, and

“Whereas, by the action of the Forty-fifth National Encampment the reading of said orders No. 11 as a part of the public exercises on each Memorial Day is required, it would seem to be eminently proper that there should be placed in Arlington National Cemetery, where rest the bodies of so many of our Nation's dead, a tablet to perpetuate the history of the origin of Memorial Day.

“Therefore, Be It Resolved, by the Fifty-seventh National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, in regular session assembled, this 7th day of September, 1923, that the proper steps be taken to secure the placing in the Amphitheater in Arlington National Cemetery of a bronze tablet bearing the engraved words of said order establishing Memorial Day.

“G. Whereas, the following States, twenty-eight in number, have laws making February 12, the anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln, a legal holiday in said States, namely: California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Jersey, New York, New Mexico, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Utah, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Wyoming;

“And Whereas, the Department of the Potomac, Grand Army of the Republic, has on several occasions adopted resolutions requesting the Congress of the United States to declare Lincoln's birthday anniversary to be a legal holiday in the District of Columbia, in the same manner as Washington's birthday anniversary has been made a legal holiday in said District; therefore

“Resolved, that we, the members of the Fifty-seventh National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, in regular session assembled, this 7th day of September, 1923, in the City of Milwaukee, Wis., believing that the time has arrived when the memory of Abraham Lincoln, the chief of the preservers of the Union of States, should be honored in the same exalted degree as the memory of Washington, the chief of the founders of that Union, earnestly and in full agreement, join with the Department of the Potomac in urging Congress to make the anniversary of the birth of Lincoln a legal holiday in the District of Columbia, where he rendered service of inestimable value to our country and the entire world, and died a blessed martyr to that righteous cause for which 412,000 of our comrades in arms, during the Civil War “gave the last full measure of devotion.”

“Resolved, further, that the Commanders of all Posts of the Grand Army of the Republic in the different States are requested to urge their Senators and Representatives in Congress to support by their votes this meritorious measure when brought before their respective bodies.

“H. Resolved, that we are in favor of the incoming administration securing a railroad rate to the next Encampment of one cent per mile for all ex-Union soldiers, sailors or marines, and their wives or widows.

“I. The Grand Army of the Republic has learned with profound sorrow of the awful calamity that has befallen a friendly Nation.

“Human sympathy knows neither national or racial boundaries, and though they are of another race, and though oceans roll between, our hearts go out to the people of Japan, as amid the ruins of a devastated land, they look in vain for vanished homes and vanished loved ones.

“We commend the efforts of our National Government in hastening with all possible speed to the relief of the people of that sorely stricken country.

“We recommend a donation of $500.00 to the Red Cross for the relief of sufferers in Japan.

(Adopted by unanimous rising vote.)

“J. The Grand Army of the Republic, at the close of its Fifty-seventh National Encampment, held in the City of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, desires to express its appreciation of the royal welcome with which it has been received by the citizens of that city, and return thanks for the innumerable evidences of regard by which their hosts have made the week of their stay so pleasant.

“The State of Wisconsin, in the person of its chief executive, has shared in Milwaukee’s welcome and represented the sentiment of the whole State whose share in contributing so many of its men to the ranks of the defenders of the Union, has placed it among the foremost of the loyal States of the Union.

“A most pleasing feature of the past week has been the ready efficiency and enthusiasm with which the Boy Scouts have vied with each other in contributing to the comfort of veteran guests. We see in their spirit the hope of the best things for the country’s future, and thank them for the loving services they have rendered to us.”

X. Two changes were made in the Rules and Regulations by the Encampment, as follows:

A. So much of the Rules and Regulations as is necessary is so amended as to provide for the admission of members of the organization of the Sons of Veterans to the regular meetings of posts without vote in Grand Army affairs.

B. Section 1, Article VII, of Chapter 2, is so amended as to make it optional with each Department whether the election and installation of officers of Posts be held at the first stated meeting in December and January, respectively, or prior thereto.

V. Pension Legislation.

A pressing need demands an early increase of pensions to aged Civil War veterans and widows. The cost of living has arisen out of all proportion to present pensions. Food and clothing, coal or other fuel, house rent and household goods of all kinds, medicines, doctor bills and dentist bills, spectacles, insurance, house repairs, taxes on humble homes; some or all of which are needful to every comrade and every widow, are beyond his or her income.

They must deny themselves the comforts of life, the needed relief in accidents or sickness, the necessary help, unless better provision is made for them.

Those who are fortunately in comfortable circumstances know what wretchedness and want, woe and misery is the lot of their comrades and widows. Not only sympathy must go out to them, but we must plead to Congress for relief. It should not be a mere matter of sentiment, but we must be protagonists for justice without delay.

Urge the matter upon the attention of your Congressmen. Write to the Legislative Committee information and any prospect for help. Let us have the spirit with which we fought for union, and battle earnestly until a righteous victory is achieved.

There can be no discussion of the merits of the remnant of that Grand Army of 2,300,000 men who fought gallantly four years to save this nation from disaster. The United States is a great Nation with great resources. It must not forget its old and infirm heroes.

We appeal to our comrades, the widows who now have pensions and to our Allies, the Woman's Relief Corps, Ladies of the G. A. R., Sons of Veterans, Daughters of Veterans, Sons of Veterans Auxiliary, all and each to urge upon Congressmen the great need of an early increase of pensions. Report of progress will be published from time to time in the National Tribune.

The demand is imperious; the urgency is great!

VI. The following comrades were elected as Trustees of the Permanent Fund, namely:

William J. Patterson, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Daniel M. Hall, Columbus, Ohio.

Frank R. Chase, Smyrna, Mich.

VII. Assistant Adjutants General who have not yet done so, are requested to send in the name of place and date of their next Department Encampment and are also reminded to forward names of Aides-de-Camp on the Staff of the Commander-in-Chief.

VIII. Department Commanders will see that annual reports for the year ending December 31st, 1923, are forwarded to these Headquarters promptly, with check or money order for the per capita of 5 cents for a half year, made payable to Cola D. R. Stowits, Quartermaster General. This Per Capita is due at these Headquarters by February 1st, 1924.

IX. From the Department of Louisiana came an inquiry which is as follows:

“Should any post of the Department surrender its charter, can the members thereof deposit the transfer cards issued to them by the Assistant Adjutant General of the Department, under Section 4, Article IV., Rules and Regulations, in a Post of any other Department, while still residing in the Department of which said defunct Post was a member?”

The Judge Advocate General decides that there is nothing in the Rules and Regulations which prohibits such action and the Commander-in-Chief approves the decision.

By command of

GAYLORD M. SALTZGABER,

Commander-in-Chief.

PENSIONS

I. Comrades: It is with intense regret that I announce that the Bursum Pension Bill, passed the American Congress but was vetoed by the President of the United States. The Bill failed to over-ride the veto by one vote.

We had thought that the sufferings of the comrades and widows could be alleviated and that the Bill would pass as evidence of the gratitude of our Nation for the great services rendered by the Union soldiers and the devotion of their widows, and we greet with profound sorrow the failure of this Bill.

FIFTY-EIGHTH NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT

S. OF V.

IV. The name hereafter to be borne by the Sons of Veterans is not yet settled and may be determined at the Boston Encampment.

MT. LINCOLN

V. At the request of James H. Chase of Cashmere, Washington, I call attention to the fact that the National Encampment declared in favor of changing the name of Mt. Ranier to that of Mt. Lincoln.

A joint resolution has been introduced in Congress by Representative Morgan to effect that change, and also to give the name Lincoln to the park and reserve around the mountain. Comrades everywhere are requested to urge their Senators and Representatives in Congress to vote for the change.

BURIAL EXPENSES

VI. Sec. 301 of the War Risk Insurance Act, as amended by the Act approved Dec. 24, 1919, provides:

“Where a veteran of any war dies after discharge or resignation from the service and does not leave sufficient assets to meet the expense of his burial, and such expenses are not otherwise provided for, the United States Veterans Bureau shall pay the following sums:

“For a flag to drape the casket, and after burial to be given to the next of kin to the deceased a sum not exceeding $5.00.

“Also for burial expenses, a sum not exceeding $100.00, to such person or persons as may be fixed by regulations.”

That language seems to include the veterans of any war and as some states do not make proper provision it might be that friends of comrades would deem it proper to apply to the Veterans Bureau for that relief.

OTHER ITEMS

VII. Past Commanders-in-Chief Samuel Van Sant, Minneapolis, Minn.; David J. Palmer, Washington, Iowa; and C. B. Wilson, Los Angeles, California, of the National Council of Administration, are hereby appointed a Committee to present to the National Encampment at Boston a proper biography and tribute to Past Commander-in-Chief Clarendon E. Adams, deceased.

QUORUM

VIII. The Judge Advocate General decides:

“Sec. 3, Art. 6 of Chap. II. of the Rules and Regulations provides that three members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business in Posts of less than fifty members and while that number cannot under the Ritual open the Post, I think that it must be accepted as the smallest number of members that can retain the charter of the Post.

“Sec. 4, Art. 1 of Chap. V. furnishes a method of eliminating from the rolls Posts not having the required number of members, it having been decided under that section that a charter may be forfeited for neglect to hold meetings. Blue Book Pg. 55."

CREDENTIAL REPORTS

IX. Commanders and Assistant Adjutants General of all Departments are urged to promptly forward to the Adjutant General names and addresses correctly given of newly elected officers and delegates and alternates to the National Encampment. This is important!

Upon application, blanks will be sent from the Quartermaster General, Cola D. R. Stowits, 502 Peoples Bank Building, Buffalo, N. Y.

XIV. Comrades are advised that requests for an opinion or an appeal from the decision of a Department Commander must be made to the Commander-in-Chief, who will ask the Judge Advocate-General for an opinion. This opinion accordingly MUST have the approval of the Commander-in-Chief, to be official, who, if he approves, will so render his decision.

XV. The Commander-in-Chief wishes to visit as many Department Encampments as possible and Assistant Adjutants-General are asked to notify him immediately of the location of Department Encampments and dates, if decided.

Form C will be mailed to Assistant Adjutants-General in December, with number of Posts and Members entered thereon, as last reported, and these reports MUST be signed by the officers of the Department and NOT by the Secretary. Checks or money orders should be made payable to The Quartermaster-General, Grand Army of the Republic, but must be sent with Form C to Russell C. 1. The Grand Army of the Republic, at the close of its Seventy-first National Encampment, held in Madison, the Capitol city of Wisconsin, for itself and its auxiliary and allied societies, expresses its sincere gratitude to the Governor and State of Wisconsin, the Mayor and citizens of Madison, the Madison and Wisconsin Foundation and its Executive Director, Col. J. W. Jackson, the University of Wisconsin, the United States Marine Band, the management and employees of the Hotel Loraine and other hotels where our members stayed, the Patriotic Societies of Madison and Wisconsin, the various Broadcasting Companies and Radio Stations, the Boy Scouts and the Girl Scouts, for the extremely kind and gracious reception tendered to them. We feel that the entire people of your beautiful city have, without exception, sought to make our visit here a grand success.

We leave with feelings of much regret at parting and will ever remember the pleasant time we have had in your midst as your guests, with especial acknowledgment of your friendly treatment and the newspaper courtesies extended us. The patriotic devotion of your people toward the veterans of the Civil War and their attendants, all and singular, will ever linger in our memory. As we leave you for our homes, we wish you continued joy and peace in your own pleasant home surroundings and as we separate we again thank you without reserve for your extreme hospitality.

2. Whereas, the War of 1861-1865 was not a war between States, but a Civil War, and

Whereas, the Supreme Court of the United States, in numerous decisions has held that the War of 1861-1865 was a Civil War, and

Whereas, many Confederate Generals, including Beauregard, Law, Hood, J. E. Johnson, Kirby Smith, Cheatham, Basil Duke and others have written, for publication, articles under the title and description of "Battles and Leaders of the Civil War," and never used the term "War Between the States," and

Whereas, Congress has published the records of that War in many Volumes entitled "Official Records of the War of the Rebellion," and

Whereas, in February, 1911, on motion of Congressman Charles L. Bartlett of Georgia, the Congress passed a resolution changing the designation "War of the Rebellion" to "Civil War," and

Whereas, there was no treaty of peace following the surrender of the armies of Lee and Johnston, nor proclamation made by any state or the National Government that the War was ended, and

Whereas, it is beyond any question that the victor and not the vanquished has the sole right to give the War a name, and

Whereas, for more than sixty years following the Civil War, the designation "War Between the States," had never been heard from or found its way into print, and

Whereas, such designation is not descriptive of what actually took place and is absolutely untrue, therefore be it

Resolved, that to substitute "War Between the States" for "Civil War" would be abject surrender to southern propaganda, and be it further

Resolved, by the Grand Army of the Republic, at its 71st National Encampment, held at Madison, Wisconsin, September 5-10, 1937, that we strongly protest the use of the phrase, "War Between the States," in any publication concerning the celebration of the 75th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg, and that wherever such phrase occurs there be substituted the words "Civil War" to conform to the designation given by the immortal Abraham Lincoln in his Gettysburg Address, "We are now engaged in a great Civil War."

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be forwarded by the Adjutant-General to the Chairman of the Pennsylvania State Commission in charge of the celebration of the 75th Anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg.

3. Resolved, that the Commander-in-Chief appoint a committee to notify Paul L. Roy, Executive Secretary of the Pennsylvania Gettysburg Commission that we are willing to attend a reunion of citizens of the United States who at one time were opposed to one another in a Civil War, and who now wish to join in a reunion at Gettysburg in 1938 for the purpose of showing to the citizens of the United States our reconciliation to the results of that Civil War, and at such reunion to have in view only the flag of this United States of America.

XIX. It was voted, on recommendation of the Committee on Resolutions that Commander-in-Chief C. H. William Ruhe appoint himself one of the Committee to confer with Secretary Paul L. Roy of the Gettysburg Commission. The following were named as the Committee:

NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS

GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC

General Orders

No. 43

Series of 1937-38

Patriotic Hall

Los Angeles, Calif.

April 6, 1938

“They are where the brave encamp
Round the folded Flags of Peace,
Where the True with Martial tramp
Travel when their battles cease.”

I. In accordance with the Rules and Regulations of the Grand Army of the Republic, Monday, May 30, will be observed as Memorial Day.

II. Let us see that the graves of all our comrades are decorated with the Flag under which they served and let flowers be placed on their graves and strewn upon the waters in memory of our sailor dead.

“Wreathe it with laurels, each grass-covered mound,
Scatter the lillies and roses around:
Plant in its beauty our Flag at its head,
To wave in the breezes o'er our soldier dead.”

III. As provided by the 45th National Encampment, flags shall be placed at half mast until 12 o'clock, noon, at which time bells shall be tolled for five minutes, during which time all comrades shall remain standing with uncovered head in tribute to their departed comrades.

IV. The National Encampment has directed that General Logan's Memorial Day Order and President Lincoln's Gettysburg Address shall be read at all public services on Memorial Day.

GENERAL LOGAN'S MEMORIAL ORDER

General Order
No. 11

Headquarters Grand Army of the Republic
Washington, D. C., May 5, 1868.

I. The 30th day of May, 1868, is designated for the purpose of strewing with flowers or otherwise decorating the graves of comrades who died in defense of their country during the late rebellion, and whose bodies now lie in almost every city, village, and hamlet churchyard in the land. In this observance no form or ceremony is prescribed, but posts and comrades will in their own way arrange such fitting services and testimonials of respect as circumstances may permit.

We are organized, comrades, as our regulations tell us, for the purpose, among other things, "of preserving and strengthening those kind and fraternal feelings which have bound together the soldiers, sailors, and marines who united to suppress the late rebellion." What can aid more to assure this result than by cherishing tenderly the memory of our heroic dead, who made their breasts a barricade between our country and its foes? Their soldier lives were the reveille of freedom to a race in chains, and their death a tattoo of rebellious tyranny in arms. We should guard their graves with sacred vigilance. All that the consecrated wealth and taste of the Nation can add to their adornment and security is but a fitting tribute to the memory of her slain defenders. Let no wanton foot tread rudely on such hallowed grounds. Let pleasant paths invite the coming and going of reverent visitors and fond mourners. Let no vandalism of avarice or neglect, no ravages of time, testify to the present or to the coming generations that we have forgotten, as a people, the cost of a free and undivided republic.

If other eyes grow dull and other hands slack, and other hearts cold in the solemn trust, ours shall keep it well, as long as the light and warmth of life remain in us.

Let us, then, at the time appointed, gather around their sacred remains and garland the passionless mounds above them with choicest flowers of springtime; let us raise above them the dear old flag they saved from dishonor; let us in this solemn presence renew our pledges to aid and assist those whom they have left among us as sacred charges upon the Nation's gratitude,—the soldier's and sailor's widow and orphan.

II. It is the purpose of the Commander-in-Chief to inaugurate this observance with the hope that it will be kept up from year to year, while a survivor of the war remains to honor the memory of his departed comrades. He earnestly desires the public press to call attention to this order, and lend its friendly aid in bringing it to the notice of comrades in all parts of the country in time for simultaneous compliance therewith.

III. Department commanders will use every effort to make this order effective.

By Command of

JOHN A. LOGAN

Commander in Chief.

N. P. CHIPMAN,

Adjutant General.

LINCOLN'S GETTYSBURG ADDRESS

Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth upon this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battle field of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. But, in a larger sense, we cannot dedicate, we cannot consecrate, we cannot hallow this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here have consecrated it far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us, the living, rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us, that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion; that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain; that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people, and for the people shall not perish from the earth.

V. Sunday, May 22, will be observed as Memorial Sunday. Comrades are urged to attend church services on that day and to invite the members of our auxiliary and allied orders to accompany them.

VI. Comrades are asked to visit the schools the week preceding Memorial Day, at a time convenient for the school authorities, thus serving as a reminder to the children of that crucial time in the history of our Nation, the four years of Civil War.

VII. Department Chaplains are requested to send their reports to the Chaplain-in-Chief, Rev. Martin V. Stone, 18 Columbia Ave., Jamestown, New York.

VIII. The second Sunday in May has been observed for many years as Mothers' Day. On Sunday, May 8, let us wear a white carnation in memory of our mothers.

“God sent the birds and sunshine to gladden all the world,
He sent the foliage and flowers in radiance unfurled,
He sent the stars, the moon, and pearly dewdrops sweet,
And then he sent a Mother dear, to make it all complete.”

IX. Tuesday, June 14th, will be observed as Flag Day and all Posts are urged to join with allied organizations and the public in a proper observance of the Day.

“All deeds man wrought, must pass away,
Ere history's course is run;
All creeds, man made, must yet decay
Before the tale is done;
But one heart emblem still remains
Earth relic of the past,
Across the sweep of endless plains,
The STARS AND STRIPES WILL LAST.”

By command of

OVERTON H. MENNET,

Commander-in-Chief.
